SUICIDE OF PENNSYLVANIA NE NSPAPER MAN.

Leaves a Note To Fiancee-Belief Is That William Warren, of Chester, Had a Wife in Eng-

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.-"Tell Lilly the will find my dead body in the bath room and notify Worthington that he need not send a cab as there will be no wedding to-night." Having written the above on a piece of paper and placed it under the front door of his newly furnished house yesterday, William Warren, aged forty-five years, a newspaper man of Chester, went to the bath room and blew out his brains with a revolver. Warren was to have been married to Miss Lillian Robertson of this city. The reason for the suicide is not definitely known, but Warren is said to have a wife in England, which country he left seventeen years ago. After his arrival in Chester, he married a young woman who died three vears ago. All preparations had been made for the wedding at Miss Robertson's home. Her brother went to Chester, to accompany his prospective brother-in-law to this city, but short-

Mr. Ames said it was a clerk's error. Mr. Hunter said that net losses was turned into a pro fit of $24,341.46 by interjecting a Twin City syndicate profit of $65,463.30. Mr. Ames retorted, "That was done by the insertion of a perfectly proper item, and it is a small mind that endeavors to bring out any other interpretation." The master in chambers was obliged to request that personali-ties be not indulged in. Mr. Ames added that the item was not included, owing to a lapse of memory on the part of the clerk. Several other disputes took place over the statements of ac counts, and finally the master ad journed proceedings to Tuesday, to enable accountants for Ames and the liquidator, to come to some understanding about them.
