To Kill "Simon Legree." Loganport, Ind., Nov. 12.—During the presentation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" here Monday night, Frank Marshall, a burly negro and son of a former slave, rendered insane by the whipping of Uncle Tom by Simon Legree, leaped upon the stage and attempted to kill the actor, Uncle Tom, who jumped off the block and took a hand in the fight, but the negro was overpowering both of them, when a policeman suppressed him. The performance was broken up by the incident. The negro said his father had been whipped just as depicted on the stage, and the memory drove him to madness.

FIVE HUNDRED BOOT AND SHOE EMPLOYEES LISTEN TO JUDGMENT.

Manufacturers Get The Case—Leather Cutters' Complaint Not Proven—They Must Pay The Costs.

Quebec, Nov. 12.—About five hundred employees in the boot and shoe trade were present in the court house last evening, to listen to the judgment rendered upon the complaint of the leather cutters against the manufacturers, which was taken under advisement some time ago, and also, to follow the proceedings in the case of the manufacturers against the Brotherhood of Shoe Machinists. Mr. Bedard announced that in the case of the leather cutters against the manufacturers, Messrs. Bileau and Brunet could not agree on a decision, and that, consequently, he was called upon to render a decision in the case.

HELD PRISONER FOR HOURS. Suction Imprisons Driver in a Crib Under Water. Niagara Falls, Ont., Nov. 12.—Yesterday while Joseph Taylor, a diver, was at work in the crib, sixteen feet below the surface of the water in the rapids above the falls, he was caught in the suction made by the water going through the shooting, and was held fast. All efforts to free himself were unsuccessful. He signaled for help and Diver Stokes was sent down, but he could not extricate the man. Two more divers were sent down and finally lines were made fast to the imprisoned man. He was hauled out by main force, after being held for three hours. Doctors say he will recover.

SPIRITUALISTIC SWINDLE.

Enormous Sums Extorted by Crafty Couple.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—Berlin has another spiritualistic swindle, which is now occupying the criminal courts. The principal defendant is a former circus performer, Frau Gustava Schettler, who, posing as the widow of a distinguished official, received at her luxuriously-fitted-up rooms young men and women of all classes of society under the pretence of arranging séances. She claimed to have a medium whom she named Lieschen, at her command, and affirmed that she could make her materialize at will.

One of them was Martha Horn, a talented singer, who now stands with Frau Gustava Schettler, accused of blackmail, threatening the life of a rich lover, Franz, and several other offences. Both women seem to have extorted enormous sums of money, which were squandered in riotous living. When the crash came, and the police raided Schettler's apartments, the women fled, and feigning lunacy, managed to find refuge in an institution for demented patients, where she stayed for many months before her identity was discovered. Some fifty witnesses will tell how the woman befooled them.
