Island Thursday. At Marysville, Wolfe Island, Thursday afternoon, R. J. Spoor, J.P., heard evidence in the case of Duncan McLaren against J. O'Brien, pound keeper, for unlawful detention of cattle. From the evidence given, it appears that eight head of cattle owned by George McDonald, broke into farm of Mr. McLaren, who impounded them and placed damage to the amount of $11 against them. Mr. Mc Laren wanted O'Brien to liberate the cattle, offering to give bonds to cover all losses. This O'Brien refused to do, demanding cash, hence the suit.
