STATEMENT REITERATED.

Regarding House Surgeon's Strike At The General Hospital.

The News and Times, under the head of "A Local Affair Greatly Exaggerated," charges the Whig with spread-Military Districts Nos. 3 and ing false reports about the trouble at the general hospital. After missing the important piece of hospital infor-mation, reported exclusively by this paper, the News the next day inter-views the house surgeons, who, it innocently declares, stated they did not "strike." If the News will prove that did not "strike," that they were regular hospital duty all Tuesday morning as usual, and that they did not give verbal notice that they were at least temporarily quitting, the writer will give $25 to the hospital so thorough an officer, so courteous a gentleman and so genial and beloved its writer do the same. It is not the a comrade in arms. The banquet was a custom of the Whig to exaggerate or falsify reports. Its information in this ularity in the two districts he so case comes from the most trustworthy sources, and it, therefore, reiterates its statement of two days ago that there was a house surgeons' "strike." of Kingston's most eminent doctors. Therefore, the Whig defies the News to the News' staff well knows. On the contrary great dissatisfaction exists in nors will make a big mistake if they
