THE OFFENSIVE POSTERS. The customs officials in the larger cities have undertaken an enforcement of the law which suppresses the pictorial advertisement when in any guise and to any degree it depicts violence and crime.

Of course it is possible to defy the municipal officials. Since the by-law referred to has been passed, and since it is supposed to have gone into effect, offensive pictures have been put upon the outer walls, some of them in places where they have been teaching very unacceptable lessons.

NOT A PAYING VENTURE. The report of the United States government on the rural mail delivery is not at all enticing.

OBSERVATIONS. The Last Resort. Elijah (the Third) Dowie may yet have to depend upon the ravens.

Putting On Airs. Toronto is feeling haughty over the prospect of a ten storey building. The place is rapidly getting over being a village.

DR. J. P. VROOMAN. Offered The Liberal Candidacy in Lennox. Napanee, Dec. 7.—On Saturday afternoon a report got about that a railway accident had occurred in the cut east of the town, and that four men were killed.
