 New York, Dec. 29.—Detective Sergeant Flood, it is said, has a war-

 Glover, commodore of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club, and a man pro-is not alone involved in investigations. Several lawyers, some of them prominent, and members of corporabelief that they aided Mr. Glover in carrying out many alleged swindling schemes. Several arrests are expected to follow shortly. The complaint against Mr. Glover is grand larceny, and obtaining money under false pretext.

The Late Capt. Cook.
 On Saturday Capt. Richard H.
 Cook, one of the best known river navigators, passed away at the general hospital, Brockville, after several weeks' treatment for internal complaints. The late Capt. Cook was born in the vicinity of Rockport sixty-one years ago. He followed the occupation of farmer for several years but when still a young man he entered upon the career of a navigator, and for several seasons commanded different boats running into Brockville. He had charge of and was part owner of the steamer Antelope when she ran on the route between here and Ottawa.
 Deceased was twice married but both wives predeceased him, also two children. Two sisters, however, Mrs.
 Davis and Mrs. Lear, from the vicinity of Rockport are left to mourn his loss.
 In religion he was a Methodist.
 This morning the remains were taken to Lansdowne for interment.

Telegraphy and Fast Trains.
 To show the value of wireless telegraphy in connection with twentieth century railroad travel, an instance is cited. On December 7th, a gentleman wrote from Bremen, Germany, to the New York Central, saying that he would arrive in New York on the Monday or Tuesday, December 14th, via Sagaponack, Long Island, and requesting that space be reserved for him on the Twentieth-Century limited, leaving New York for Chicago, Wednesday, December 15th. A wireless message was received in New York, from some point off the coast, via Sagaponack, Long Island, saying: "Steamer day late.
 Reserve two compartments, Thursday Twentieth-Century limited. All arrangements for the party to leave for Chicago on Thursday are made, thus establishing as a practical success the wireless telegraph."

Died At Chicago.
 The death took place Sunday morning in Chicago of Albert Sands, a younger brother of Dr. W. W. Sands.
 The young man suffered from an attack of pneumonia, but appeared to be recovering, when he suffered a re-lapse. It was then that Dr. Sands was notified of his brother's critical illness and at once hastened to his bedside, but too late to be of service.
 The remains reached the city Monday and on Tuesday the funeral took place from his father's residence, Sunbury, the remains being placed in the vault of Sunbury cemetery. The deceased was a young man of sterling ability, who had a successful business career before him had he not been stricken down in the early morning of life.

A Hen-Pecked Cutter.
 A farmer living down the Palace road last Monday treated himself to a fine new cutter as a Christmas present. He took it home and placed it in the driveway. It was a beauty, and attracted the attention of a large Plymouth Rock rooster, who, as he straggled around inspecting it closely, discovered a rival bird reflected in the highly polished cutter. He spent the forenoon in fierce combat with his supposed adversary, and when discovered in the afternoon the beautiful cutter was a wreck. The bird had pecked and scratched it all over, and it was at once brought back to town to C. A. Graham to be sand papered, repainted and varnished.

Enquires "Why?"
 "Alderman King in a letter to the Whig says he discarded the idea of election at large of alderman because of the outlook for a lengthy ballot paper," writes "Citizen," who then enquires: "Why? What's the objection to a big or small ballot. They are used in the United States elections and I guess our Canadian voters are just as intelligent and just as capable of marking a ballot for a mayor and twenty-one alderman as any Yankee." "Citizen" writes more but this is the gist of his letter. We are too crowded with news to give it in full.

REV. H. J. PETRY
DIED ON MONDAY AFTER-
NOON AT QUEBEC.
 Was Well-Known in Quebec Diocese, Was Immigration Chaplain at Grosse Isle, And Curate of St. George's Cathedral.
 Quebec, Dec. 29.—Rev. H. J. Petry died yesterday at his residence, St.
 Denis avenue, after a rather lengthy illness. The deceased, who was M.
 A. of Queen's College, Oxford, was known throughout this province. He occupied several charges in this diocese, and for a number of years was curate of St. Peter's church, in this city, rector at Danville, Que., and assistant minister at the cathedral.
 For several years past he was immigration chaplain at Grosse Isle. Deceased was the father of H. J. H.
 Petry, ex-headmaster of Bishop's College School, and of Capt. W. Petry, of this city.

WOLFE ISLAND FERRY,
 Discussion Alter Monday's Nominations.
 Wolfe Island, Dec. 29.—After the township nominations yesterday afternoon, an interesting and good-natured discussion took place on the new ferry boat matter, the present system of road work and the budget, which was participated in by the nominees as well as by the electors of the township. It was evident that the important question of the new ferry wharf and the proposed facilities at Kingston, the latter to be constructed according to the terms of the by-law recently passed by the Kingston council, was the root upon which opinion was divided.
 There appeared to be some uncertainty as to the wisdom of proceeding as arranged, based on the additional tax to be incurred to build the new steamer. The possibility of the ferry not paying expenses and becoming a financial burden to the township, and the $5,000 bond required to be given by the township indemnifying the case in case of accident on the wharf. The questions under discussion were all handled in a very temperate manner by the various speakers, and the debate, though bringing forth honest difference of opinion on some matters, was conducted without bitterness.

THE ANNUAL DINNER
Of The Ancient St. John's Lodge
Of Masons.
 The annual dinner of the Ancient St. John's Lodge, A.F. & A.M., was held last evening in the British American hotel, about sixty Masons gracing the board, T. J. Crowe, W.M., presided and was supported by A.
 Shaw and J. Nicole, P.D.D.G.M., representing the grand lodge. After the very excellent libations had been given just consideration, the table was cleared and the toast list opened with the "Health of The King and Craft." The other toasts were: "Grandmaster and Grand Lodge," "Sister Lodges," "Visiting Brethren," "Masons' Wives and Masons' Bairns," and "Army and Navy." During the evening songs and recitations were delivered by Dr.
 Richardson, R. E. Burns, Sergt.-Major O'Hagan, and George Greogan. The dinner was a most enjoyable affair.

The O.H.A. Threat.
 The O.H.A. rule-book went to press yesterday, with an abridged schedule for No. 2 district. Only matches in month of January will be published, as they are the only ones recognized as championship matches of the O.H.A.
 If group No. 2 has not a winner by the 30th of January, it will be passed over in the allotment of final dates for the championship. Until then, however, all the clubs remain in good standing in the O.H.A. Thus sayeth the authorities!

Corbett and Hanlon Ready.
 San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 29.— Everything is in readiness for the fight to-night between "Young Corbett" and Eddie Hanlon, on the result of which the featherweight championship will hinge. Around the cafes and sporting resorts, to-day, the contest is the sole topic of conversation. Corbett is still the favorite, but his friends realize that Hanlon is a dangerous man and refuse to give the odds asked.

Effect Of Radium On Mice.
 Paris, Dec. 29.—Dr. Roux, of the Pasteur Institute, has reported to the Academy of Sciences the result of experiments he has made with radium in a cage containing mice, and that after twenty days the animals lost their weight, but subsequently came out again, but was white. Increased ex-posure resulted in paralyzing the mice.

Two Groups Played Off.

 terday, the winners being: Group A, son, 12.

 twenty-five candidates for mayor, one a little town. The electors seem to be able to discriminate!

 J. J. Behan, a school trustee, is also a candidate for aldermanic honors.

Malt Purity
 Ale brewed from malt alone possesses important dietetic properties that are lacking in common ales.
 Carling's Ale is brewed from the purest and most scientifically prepared malt, and contains more food and less alcohol than common ale.
 That is why it is so regularly prescribed by family physicians for building up their patients.
 No ale is equal to Carling's for medical purposes.
 Ask for Carling's Ale—accept no other,

 Paris, Dec. 29.—A duel with swords was fought between Capt. Levy, of the 5th regiment of engineers, and Henry De Molroy, a leading anti-Semite.
 Capt. Levy was wounded in the arm.
 The traditional results of French duels were not followed in this case, for the opponents remain unconciliated. The duel was the outcome of a violent altercation over the Dreyfus case.
