The opening games of the hockey season were played here on Christmas afternoon. The first game was between Camden East and Newburgh. The ice was in wretched condition and fast hockey was out of question. Neither team had much practice; in fact it was each team's first-lineup. Nevertheless the game was well contested, resulting in a tie, 1-12 E. Shorey scored in the first half and H. Ryan did the dutiful for Camden East in the second half.
