

THE FIRE DRILL
SAVED LIVES OF SIX HUND-RED CHILDREN.

Miss Alice M. Smith, of Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering may be permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain, and could find no relief, but one day when visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me. I now experience no pain, and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change. I use it occasionally now when I am exceptionally tired or worn out.—Miss Alice M. Smith, 801 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., Chairman Executive Committee, Minneapolis Study Club.—$2000 for full if original of above

THE TRANSVAAL WAR.

Incidents to be Reproduced at the World's Fair.
St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 2.—A site for the installation of the Transvaal military spectacle was granted to-day by the division of conservation of the world's fair on the area southwest of the Temple of Fraternity, near the Canadian building. The ground is wooded and of a rolling contour, admirably adapted to the purpose. The selection resulted from a conference held with Gen. Viljoen and Capt. Arthur Lewis, manager of the enterprise.

The plans of the spectacle are on an ambitious scale. A mammoth arena, the front of which shall reproduce the front of the grandest building at Pretoria, is planned as an open-air stage, the spectators being massed in front. Stretching before the seats is to be the area on which the battle of Colenso and the battle of Mafeking and the Boer contingent is to be represented. The forest will be the real grass and trees and rolling country. The vista will be the insensibly into the painted panorama which will carry the eye of the spectator across the miles of South African veld.

SMALLPOX SPREADING.

Fourteen Families Afflicted Between Roblin and Croden.
Erieville, Jan. 2.—J. Carey and sister, Miss H. Carey, are still the guests of their brother, Rev. Father Carey. John Hayes, returning from Minnesota in a few days, accompanyed by his sister, Miss Annie is recovering. Miss Annie Hayes, Patrick tava, is visiting her father, Patrick Hayes. Miss Kathleen Phalen, after spending Christmas and New Year's with her parents here, has returned to Tanworth to resume her duties as military apprentice. John Hayes and brother arrived during the holidays from Ireland. B. Murphy continues ill.

Thomas Gaffney and family spent New Year's with friends in East Hungry. Fourteen families are said to have small-pox between Croden and Roblin. A. J. Stewart, of Queen's College, Kingston, arrived here on a visiting day to friends on New Year's eve. Miss Kate Burns, Watertown, N.Y., is visiting her father, Mr. J. O'Connell, at St. Michael's College, Kingston.
Nicholas Phelan, who spent the summer months in Kingston, is enjoying the holidays with friends here. Mrs.
William Hopkins spent Christmas with friends in Napanee. F. Flynn, lumberwoods foreman in the Nipissing district, is spending holidays with his mother and friends here. Miss O' Reilly is again engaged for teacher in the separate school. We are pleased to see Father Carey in our midst, again much improved in health. Rev.
Father Berneite, who had charge of the parish in Father Carey's absence, made many friends during his stay in our midst. William Phelan spent Christmas with his family here.

THE BY-LAW DEFEATED.

Over Two to One Voted Against The Measure.
The by-law which had for its object the election of aldermen by a vote of the whole electorate, thus cancelling the present ward system, was officially defeated. It was too grasping in such a short time, it is prophesied that before many years pass, when the success of the new scheme is seen elsewhere, that Kingstonians will ask for its adoption. The result shows that two to one was cast against the by-law:

Montreal Live Stock Market.

Montreal, Jan. 4.—About 600 head of cattle, 200 sheep and lambs, and a few small calves, were offered for sale in the East End abattoir to-day. A twenty-mile breeze blowing twenty degrees below zero made the environs of the cattle market rather chilly, but the new covered cattle pens helped to mitigate the things wonderfully. The butchers were present in considerable numbers, and trade was fair, with higher prices paid than on last Monday, but not so high as were identified Friday evening. The funeral took place on Sunday from their home, 34 Rosslyn Place, to the Church of Our Saviour, thence to Whitby, Ont., for interment. E. W. Davy is still reported among the missing.

JERUSALEM'S BEAUTIES.
The Holy City, The Joy of The Earth.
By a banker.
The majority of those who have never travelled in Palestine are under the impression that the country is a stony, cheerless wilderness, with nothing to attract save historic interest and relics. On the contrary, the Holy Land is a sunny garden of flowers, a paradise of enchanting, though sometimes rugged, beauty; a land of hill and dale, of wild ravines and steep passing almost as large as forest with lines of evergreen, of glowing scarlet anemones, azure blue gentians, or golden narcissus or tulip.
The traveller landing at Joppa, and journeying towards Jerusalem (there is no railway, but those who do not wish to lose all the romance of the journey should travel by road) passes first along a road bordered for more than a mile by orange groves, lovely trees almost as large as forest fruit; the gardens being protected from intruders by an impenetrable hedge of cactus, which when in flower must present a gorgeous spectacle. After historic interest, through the loveliest of flower-bedded scenery, the traveller arrives at a turn of the road domes and minarets, the old buttress-City bursts in all its beauty upon him. And as he first gazes upon this point of interest alike to Christian to Jew, or to Mahomedan, he must be made of the hardest of adamant, and have a heart of stone, if a thrill of fervid emotion and rapt fascination does not course through his veins.
And now, arrived within the ancient city, what a rush of memories flood through the mind of magnificence and luxury, of vicissitudes of wealth and glory, of direst misery and aching wreth, of the most heroic and the most terrible anguish ever endured. Here is the veritable Mount Moriah itself; the very rock upon which Abraham offered up Isaac, the site whereon stood the most august and the most sacred building ever erected and that whereon the most lavish outlay of treasure, amounting in all to more than five hundred millions sterling, was ever expended; the temple of Solomon.
And on this very rock upon which the ancient Jews, and the Christians, and the Mohammedans, are standing—escorted by a Turkish soldier with fixed bayonet—stood the Holiest of Holies, that hallowed spot wherein the glory of the presence was manifest.
Let us, lost in reverie of lowly adoration, pay a moonlight visit to that contemplate the scene where, beneath those of the world suffered, racking soul-agony, as he first felt the foul incubus of mankind's sin resting upon him. But here, and on dread Calvary later on, he was bearing the punishment due to us; He was opening the gates of the Kingdom of heaven to all who will accept Him as their Redeemer.
