Boils were so painful could not sleep at night.

APPEARED ON NECK, LEGS AND ARMS.

Burdock Blood Bitters CURED THEM.

It is well-known to all that bad blood is the direct cause of all skin diseases and it is necessary for the blood to be cleansed before the eruptions will disappear. For this purpose there is nothing so equal as Burdock Blood Bitters as the thousands of testimonials we have on hand will testify.

Mr. Willard Thompson, McNeill's Mills, P.E.I., writes us as follows: "I wish to state to you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Some time ago my blood got out of order and many boils appeared on my neck, legs and arms. They were so painful that I could not sleep at night. After having tried many different remedies without any success, I finally decided, on the advice of a friend, to use Burdock Blood Bitters. Before I had quite used two bottles the boils had completely disappeared, and I wish to emphasize the fact that I think Burdock Blood Bitters the best blood purifier on the market to-day."

Told in the Twilight.

"A greater dance than has been," say the people who braved the cold, and went to the science dance last night. Last year, the verdict was that the decorations were prettier than ever before, but this year, the critics and commentators fell back upon slang to express their sentiments and said last year's decorations weren't "in it," with those of the dance of '04. Flagg there were innumerable and hunting in abundance, coats of arms of various countries, with snowshoes, and paddles, and many another emblem of our Canadian sports of all seasons. And beyond, these, which are the common property of every decorating committee, the critics fell back on the wonderful things which appertain to their own special branch. So there were electric lights and electric fans, "science" shining out opposite the stairway, "Kingston Mining School," in white lights, and all the mining paraphernalia, outlined in red lights. Downstairs cosy sitting-out places were arranged, one nook being a tent with a canvas top, in which old hats, etc., figured. The Gannaque orchestra did its very best, discarding the most luring of dance music, the brass being played by Mr. Bob Scott. Amongst the prettiest girls, were Miss Brough, Brockville; Miss Ball, Woodstock; Miss Price, Aylmer, Ont.; Miss Stuart, Belleville; the Misses Rogers, Gannaque; Miss Anson Cartwright, Belleville; Miss Mulholland, Toronto.

Mrs. Kilborn will give a party to-morrow night for the senior cadets. Mrs. Hudson will entertain a number of young people at a tobogganing party and supper on Thursday night.

Mrs. O'Hara and Mr. Geoffrey O'Hara, who spent Sunday with the Rev. Conway and Mrs. Cartwright on their way up from Ottawa, left yesterday morning for Toronto.

Miss Louise Tandy and Mr. Rechab Tandy have returned to Toronto from Chicago, where they had been spending the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Clarke Taylor, visiting with her mother, Mrs. N. Wilmot, Clergy street west, since Christmas, left for her home in Montreal, to-day.

Miss Carrie Price, daughter of the versatile and humorous editor of the Argonaut, Ont. Express, is the guest of Mrs. Edward Low Union street. Miss Price has visited here before and scores of friends will be delighted to see her again.

Miss Houston came up to-day from Cornwall, and is the guest of Canon and Mrs. Cooke, "Hazelbell."

The Rev. J. M. and Mrs. Holah will spend the next three months in Peterboro, Mr. Holah having taken charge of the parish left vacant by Mr. Armitage.

Miss Agnes Young, came down on Thursday from Toronto and is the guest of Mrs. Power, Sydenham street.

Mr. Tooker, an ex-cadet, is up from Charlottetown, and is staying with Mrs. J. L. H. Bogart.

People were very sorry to hear that Miss Moore, who was to have arrived last Saturday, to stay with Mrs. Bogart, has been unable to come. Her visit, however, has only been postponed.

Miss Macmorris has issued invitation for an "At Home," at James' rectory on Thursday evening.

Sudden Changes of Temperature

Bring Hosts of Coughs and Colds—Serious Results Are Prevented by the Use of

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

Coughs and colds usually arise from sudden changes of temperature. It may be change of weather, passing from a warmer to a colder room or exposure to a draught.

It is not always possible to prevent exposure in these ways, but it is possible to prevent serious results by using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

This great medicine has saved thousands of lives by preventing pneumonia, consumption and other forms of lung trouble.

It is mother's favorite remedy for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, and the coughs and colds to which children are subject. Being pleasant to the taste, the little ones delight to take it.

It is prized by the old people because of the prompt and thorough relief it brings for asthma and other chronic ailments of the bronchial tubes.

The very fact that the sale of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is more than three times that of any similar remedy, and was never so large as it is to-day, is sufficient proof of its merit. In the great majority of cases it is kept on hand for cases of emergency.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25c. a bottle, family size, (three times as much) 60c. at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle.

GREAT WEDDING WAS CELEBRATED AT WARWICK, ENGLAND.

Lady Marjorie Greville Married to Viscount Helmsley—The Bride is One of England's Most Beautiful Ladies.

London, Jan. 19.—In St. Mary's Collegiate church, Warwick, Lady Marjorie Greville, daughter of Sir Earl and Countess of Warwick, became the bride-to-day of Viscount Helmsley, grandson and heir of Earl Feversham. The beauty of the bride, the social position of her mother, the Countess of Warwick, and the popularity of the bridegroom combined to make the wedding one of the great social events of the year.

For the accommodation of the London guests a special train was run, reaching Warwick at noon, a half-hour before the beginning of the ceremony. The marriage was conducted by the Bishop of Oxford, assisted by the Rev. Canon Rivington, vicar of St. Mary's Collegiate church, and the Rev. H. Symonds, rector of Little Easton, Essex. The company assembled in the church was a most distinguished one. In the pews reserved for the relatives of the contracting parties were seen the Earl of Feversham, the Earl of Shrewsbury, the Dowager Countess of Sutherland, Lady Algernon Gordon Lennox, the Duke of Leinster, the Marchioness of Londonderry, Lord and Lady Castlereagh, Lord Inveresk, Sir Edgar and Lady Vincent, the Countess of Wilton and Lady Alexandra Paget.

The bridesmaid were fourteen in number, namely, Lady Marjorie Manners, Lady Marjorie Erskine, Miss Ivy Gordon-Lennox, Miss Winifred Paget, the Hon. Ethel Gerard, Miss Astor, Miss Brenda Washhouse, Lady Rosemary Leeson-Gower, Miss Molly Beckett, Miss Little, Miss Cicely Horner, Lady Violet Finch, Miss Vera Dugdale and Miss Felice Greville. The children among the bride's attendants were beautiful dresses of soft white satin, with full skirts, wide bands, bodices of white chiffon, with capes of red velvet tucked into the waistband. The older young ladies wore similar marabout gowns, the red velvet formed kind of a stole instead of being tucked into the waistband. They wore Romney picture hats, trimmed with feathers, and carried big white parasols, except that the red velvet formed kind of a stole instead of being tucked into the waistband. They wore Romney picture hats, trimmed with feathers, and carried big white parasols, except that the red velvet formed kind of a stole instead of being tucked into the waistband.

The marriage of Mr. Oscar Bickford and Miss Edith Wiswall, daughter of Mr. Joseph Clarkson Wiswall, of New York, will take place on Saturday next, at St. Luke's church, Toronto. The bride is a beautiful young woman, and an admired visitor in town some weeks ago. "Happy's" the wedding that's not long a-doing," says the Toronto Globe.

Sir Charles T. Reid, of the firm of C. Reid & Co., and Miss Florence Kerr, sister of Alderman Kerr, both of Hamilton. It will take place on January 20th.

In St. Luke's church, Toronto, the marriage took place last week, Rev. Dr. Langtry officiating, of Mr. Charles Morgan Baker, of the W. K. Brock Co., eldest son of the late Charles Baker, and Miss Flora Meta, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Webb, of Winnipeg.

The very latest hats in London are made of chiffon and velvet in the exact shade of the lovely mole-skin, with roses, such as Gloire de Dijon or deep crimson, as a touch of color. The becoming old fashion of drawn and gathered crowns and brims is to the fore again.

There is a craze for everything painted and bespangled just now. The painted scarf for draping round the shoulders is a great fancy of the moment, and painted veils are fast coming into favor. The painted blouse, too, may be a perfect work of art, and in fact a white one seen recently was painted by a well-known flower artist as a present to a bride. Needless to say there is little fear that they can be cheaply imitated and so vulgarized.

perfect features and a petite figure. Viscount Helmsley, as already stated, is the grandson and heir of the old Earl of Feversham, head of the house of Duncombe. The latter was founded by Sir Charles Duncombe, who was Lord Mayor of London, at the beginning of the eighteenth century. The country seat of Lord Feversham is Duncombe Park, in Yorkshire, a splendid mansion in the Doric style, originally planned by Van Braugh.

Lord Helmsley is now private secretary to Lord Shelborne and intends to run for parliament at the next election. His father died of consumption to which his sister, the Duchess of Leinster, likewise succumbed. His three aunts, Lady Helen Vincent, Lady Cynthia Graham, and Lady Ulrica Duncombe, are considered among the most beautiful women of England, and it may be said that the young Viscount also possesses a liberal share of good looks for which his family has long been famous. He is fairly rich, though not so rich as Waldorf Astor's, and he is said to be the favorite of Warwick hoped would be fascinated by her beautiful daughter, Lady Marjorie Greville, the bride to-day.

REFERRED TO ENGINEER

For Report as to Usefulness of Princess Street Switch.

At last night's meeting of the city council a communication was received from B. W. Folger, manager, in behalf of the electric railway company, urging that an answer be given by February 2nd to the company's request to extend the switch on Upper Princess street.

Mayor Bell at once ruled to refer the matter to the board of works. In reference to this subject, Ald. Behan held that it was unwise to refer it to the board of works. The city solicitor had given it as his opinion, that power to grant permission to extend the switch rested solely in the hands of the city engineer. He thought it would be the proper procedure to follow, to refer it to that city official.

Ald. King differed from Ald. Behan, who, Ald. King said, had evidently failed to grasp the city solicitor's opinion. The speaker interpreted the solicitor to mean that the power to lengthen the switch rested with the council. The speaker took the same view of the situation; as the solicitor pointed out, to grant the company the concession sought would be giving them double trading privileges.

Ald. McLeod took the ground that the matter should go to the board of works for consideration. By the time the committee had reached a decision, all the aldermen could have time to peruse the bulky document which represented the history of the case, and would then be in a position to vote intelligently on the matter. He thought the board of works and city engineer could safely be left to report upon the matter.

Ald. Meek took a different view of the situation from that of his learned friends. He interpreted the city solicitor's opinion to be that the city engineer alone had the power to say whether or not the switch in question was sufficient for the company's purposes. The speaker held that the subject ought to be referred to the city engineer for a report.

Ald. Behan followed on Ald. Meek's stand. If the city engineer refused to grant permission to extend the switch and held that the present switch was ample for the company's needs, then the company must apply to the city council for permission to extend the turnout at far east as Clergy street.

The mayor was about to refer the matter to the city engineer, when Ald. King said that in doing so that official must be asked specifically to report as to whether or not, in his judgment, the switch was ample, under the agreement, for the company's purposes.

Ald. Meek presented a resolution along this line, which was adopted, and the engineer will report at the next meeting of council.

CURIOUS INDIAN BURIAL CEREMONY.

After the body of a Brahmin has been anointed with sesamum oil the two toes are bound together and the two thumbs. It is then lashed to a litter made of two long parallel poles, to which are fastened seven transverse pieces of wood. The shroud is fastened to a large piece of cloth wrapped around the body and bound with ropes of straw. If the dead Brahmin leaves a will his face is not covered; otherwise the shroud is brought up over the head. The burning ground or ghat, is usually near a river, that those who have taken part in the ceremonies may purify themselves as quickly as possible. Before erecting the funeral pyre a shallow pit is dug and partially filled with dry wood, the carmen, being of the lowest caste, remains until the body is consumed. wood and sprinkled with pacharan, an inflammable liquid, and placed on the pyre and covered with branches and roots like a hut. The nearest relative or heir then takes a lighted taper and sets fire to the four corners of the pile and leaves at once to perform the ceremony of purification. The carmen, being of the lowest caste, remains until the body is consumed.

Sunlight Soap is recommended, by those who have investigated the different kind of soaps, as being the best and purest on the market. Those who have gone still farther and tried the different methods state that the Sunlight way of washing is greatly superior to ordinary methods because it requires much less work and makes the clothes whiter and cleaner. Because Sunlight Soap is quite pure and free from adulteration it will not injure delicate fabrics or the user's hands.
