St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.-It is off rially announced that Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, has informed the Russian representatives abroad that Japan has decided to break off negotiations with Russia, and to withdraw her minister, and the entire legation staff from St. the investigations does not warrant re Petersburg, and that upon the receipt ferring to precautions which may of a note to this effect from the Japanese minister, Russia ordered her minister, Baron De Rosen, and the legation staff to leave Tokio.

The official messenger published the following telegram dated February 6th, which has been sent by Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, to Russian representatives abroad : "Acting under instructions from his government, the Japanese minister at the imperial court has presented a note, which informs the imperial government of the decision of Japan to break of further negotiations and of the recall of her minister, and the whole staff of the legation. In consequence of this, his imperial majesty has been pleased to order that the Russian minister at Tokio, with the whole of the imperial mission, shall leave the capital of Japan without delay.

"Such an attitude on the part of the Tokio government, which has not even awaited the arrival of the answer of the imperial government, which was sent off during the last few days, throws the whole responsibility for the consequences which may arise from rupture of diplomatic negotiations between the two empires, on Japan.'

Made Public In France.

Paris, Feb. 8.—The Japanese miniser to France made public, this afternoon, an announcement of the breaking of of diplomatic relations between Japan and Russia, saying this action was due to Russia's delay in making response to Japan. The Japanese government communicated a statement to M. Motono, the minister to France, announcing the severance of relations with Russia, and giving the reasons therefore, M. Motono took this state ment to the foreign office, where he personally communicated it to foreign minister Deleasse. Subsequently, the Japanese minister gave the Associated Press the following Excitement In Russia.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 8.-The news of the breaking off of diplomatic relations between Russia and Japan, was spread throughout the capital by extra bulletins of the newspapers. Much excitement was created, and resulted in patriotic demonstrations. The As sociated Press was informed to-night, that order for imperial train take the czar to Moscow, had been countermanded, and the date of his majesty's departure was uncertain.
