RADFORD CAPTURED. Clever Marshal Traps Warty Game. Buffalo, N.Y., Times. Some people are surely victims of circumstances. Isaac H. Radford, who has long been wanted for violating the terms of his bond furnished for his release after he had been convicted of carrying straw bail for Chinamen is one of these.

Radford was taken about town on several different occasions even while the doughty marshals had a capias for his arrest, in his pocket. But it really was through an accident that Conkling arrested Radford. Conkling couldn't help it. He had to do it simply because Radford was a victim of circumstances.

It all happened this way. Radford, who has been dodging about the city for the past three or four weeks because a bit wearied, and so finally decided to go to the office of the United States marshal, in the Federal building, to sit in the deep-seated leather chairs and to get a few moments' rest.

London, April 5.—A Times special from Vienna says that Pope Pius X. has interferred decisively to compel the retirement of an unworthy prelate. The spectacle of the Prince Archbishop of Olmutz, the resignation of the Archbishop closes an incident which has attracted much attention in Austria Hungary and has more than once been discussed in parliament. Some fourteen years ago Mgr. Kohn, the son of a peasant of Jewish extraction was chosen by the Pope of Olmutz to succeed Landgrave Furstenberg as Prince Archbishop of Olmutz. His administration of the diocese gave excellent pecuniary results, but proved unsatisfactory in all other respects.
