Synod Resumed.

Thursday morning.-After reading of minutes, Francis King called attention to an electoral irregularity. The scrutineers for lay elections had been mixed. Those for mission board were accidentally reported for provincial synod delegates, and vice versa, no corruption such as the bishop's charge denounced in politics was suspected the scrutineers were forgiven and told to go and sin no more. Upon suggestion from Montreal diocese, unofficial, a requisition signed by delegates elect to the provincial synod, asking for postponement of the triennial meeting
