The finance committee report recommended payment of these accounts: Board of works—Kingston & Pembroke Railway company, $792.74; Grand Trunk Railway company, $98.10; R. McAuley, $17.25; John Corbett, $63.42; Warren Bros. company, $863.53; labor pay list, ending June 1st, $847.91.

Water works—F. Tracy, $4.02; British Whig Publishing company, $14.85; The Office Specialty Manufacturing company, $12.30; William Drury, $6.74; William Newlands, $100.00; Uglow & Co., $1.34; Elliott Bros., $381.28; labor pay list, ending May 16th, $172.36; labor pay list, ending May 30th, $95.78.

Parks—Labor pay list ending June 1st, $51.90.

Printing and stationery—British Whig Publishing company, $37; E. Uglow & Co., $13.85; T. McAuley, $85.25.

Police department—C. Livingston, $32.50.

On the communication of J. M. Sheelock, complaining of the manner in which he was notified of his arrears of taxes—No action.

Ald. McLeod resurrected his objections to the payment of amounts to Toronto lawyers in connection with the recent street railway question. He claimed the expenditure was extravagant; that it never was needed. Ald. King thought the amounts should stand until the whole account of the expenses was given. He agreed with what Ald. McLeod had said.

Ald. Couper thought the city engineers should do the work of measuring walks for which he now employs a special clerk at two dollars a day. He objected to the payment of the wages in question. This amount could be saved to the city, as the engineer, Ald. Couper claimed, was not occupied all the time. Ald. Carson spoke.

Ask your grocer for Windsor Salt the good cook's standby, the housewife's favorite, the one salt that is absolutely pure.

likewise. Ald. Sears claimed the clerk was needed.

Ald. Behan moved the adoption of the finance report. Ald. McLeod moved, seconded by Ald. King, that the first three items under the head of contingencies be held over till all the expenses be presented. By a vote of 10 to 7, the amendment was defeated and the report adopted.

Ald. Behan pointed out that it seemed strange that Ald. McLeod knew so little about the matter he was trying to discuss. The question of the switch he mixed up with the question of the rights of the city. What the committee was appointed to go to Toronto for was to get a decision as to whether the street railway company should throttle the city by such a threat as they made and carried out last winter. The committee was appointed to secure remedial legislation. There was not a word in the resolution which referred to the switch. He dealt with the city's rights. The speaker claimed the expenses of Mr. Elliott were legitimate. The committee was authorized to take what steps were necessary to secure remedial legislation. The committee was engaged on recommendation of the city solicitor, Mr. Robinson, who was engaged with the concurrence of the city solicitor. He was needed, as a man in direct touch with the railway committee. Ald. Behan claimed the city got a great deal by the deputations' visit to Toronto. It got what it went for, and the expense was very reasonable.

Board of Works.

Ald. Couper drew attention to the fact that the motion passed in committee that no more boardwalks be laid except as provided by statute, did not appear in the report. Ald. Knapp said it had been held over until the city solicitor's opinion as to its legality was secured.

Ald. Meek wanted to know what the board of works intended to do regarding sidewalks. It was time something definite was done. Ald. Straince held in his hand two motions he intended moving at next meeting, but the mayor ruled him out of order. The Cataragui ward man, however, didn't pay any attention to the mayor's protests, but went ahead calmly and explained his position to the aldermen. At next meeting of council, the question of sidewalks will likely be fully dealt with.

Waterworks' Committee.

Ald. Meek presented an additional report, recommending that the hours for use of hose be changed to 6 to 9 a.m., and 4 to 8 p.m. This was an extension of one hour in both morning and afternoon and was recommended by the committee after hearing opinions from all classes of citizens. The new hours stated would suit everybody. The committee also decided that fountains should run only from noon till 9 p.m.

Ald. Meek claimed that the books of the waterworks' department should show all its earnings. Hence the city should pay the full amount of the water it uses. At the end of the year, a portion of it could be handed back to the waterworks' contribution to the city. Ald. Meek claimed also that the hydrants should not be inspected at the expense of the waterworks' committee. As to locating the hydrants, he thought the fire committee should do that. The waterworks' committee cannot do the locating.

The waterworks' reports were adopted in toto.

Had A Good Time.

A farwell concert and social to Adjutant Habkirk and wife and Lieut. Granger was given in the Salvation Army barracks last evening. The barracks was fairly well filled and a fine musical and literary programme rendered by members of the local corps. Ice cream and cake were served during the intermission and a very enjoyable evening spent by all.

A Quiet Wedding.

On Saturday afternoon, in St. George's cathedral, a quiet wedding ceremony was performed by Canon Starr, when he joined in marriage Miss Jeanie Gibson, Amherst Island, and Robert McFarlane of the same place. The young couple left to take up residence on the island.

BETTER TIMES

Come After From The Food Change.

"A few years ago I found that my digestion was much the worse for white bread, hot griddle cakes, and fried dishes, and I suffered a feeling of languor which showed that something was wrong. Added to this was a feeling of stomach flatulence and increasing discomfort after meals and worst of all frequent nausea.

"Believing that I was doomed to dyspepsia and realizing that when health is gone life is hardly worth relief before it was too late.

"A little study of the subject showed me that Grape-Nuts was what I needed, so I began a careful test with Grape-Nuts and soon found that I got all the good results that were promised, being quickly changed from a half sick, well man. The discomforts and distress after eating, the sluggishness, with other symptoms I have named all rapidly vanished and in their place returning health brought back to life its old-time zest, and all my troubles went as if by magic.

"I know once more what it is to go through the day without ever knowing what it is to have a stomach around a good healthy appetite and all my troubles went as if by magic.

"My usual breakfast is four to six teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with rich milk, a couple of eggs, and a little whole wheat bread and butter, and I know from experience that 'proper food is better than medicine.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Concerning Princess Street Track Extension Signed on Monday—By-Law Confirming it Passed The City Council.

The agreement between the city and the street railway company relative to the switch extension on Princess street was signed yesterday. It was presented to the city council last night by Ald. Bassam. The agreement provides for the deposit by the company of $300 for restoring the roadbed. The other clauses are as follows:

"The company shall, after beginning the work, proceed with the laying of said switch or side track expeditiously and to the satisfaction of the city engineer of the corporation, and shall make good and restore the street surface disturbed by the laying of said switch or side track in terms of the agreement of May 9th, 1893.

"That the laying of the said switch or side track when laid shall be subject to the provisions of the existing agreements, between the city and the company, except that the company shall from the date of the completion of said switch or side track keep the street surface and all crossings along and over said switch or side track in repair, in terms of clause 15, sub-clause a, of the agreement between the corporation and the company, dated May 9th, 1893."

Ald. King raised the question of paving the block, but Ald. Knapp stated that paving at present was not laying a good road.

The by-law confirming the agreement was passed without opposition.

To Apply For Amendments.

The notice that the Grand Trunk railway company intended to apply to the railway committee of the city council for some amendments to the order of court regarding the subway at the Kingston junction, came as a surprise to the city council. What these amendments are is not known. John McIntyre, K.C., was present in the absence of the city solicitor, and stated that the latter had no notification of the nature of the amendments and himself were of the opinion that the order of court could not now be changed. On motion of Aldermen Behan and King, the city solicitor was instructed to proceed to Ottawa and look after the city's interests when the matter came before the railway committee on Thursday.

Gave The Lecture Here.

It was about ten years ago, in a lecture, Prof. John Campbell, of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, gave at Queen's on "The Perfect Father of the Perfect Book," that brought on himself the charge of heresy. The presbytery of Montreal condemned him by a majority vote, but the synod of Montreal and Ottawa, consisting largely of his own old students, proclaimed him guiltless. Every student of his stood by him.

Wilds To Be Tried For Horse Stealing.

At the police court, Tuesday morning, Charles A. Wilds, arrested by Police Constable Graham, on Monday, at Toronto, was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of having stolen a horse from a livery stable at Stouffville.

Elijah Pennock, the owner of the livery at Stouffville, testified that on May 28th, a horse was hired by his son to a man giving the name of Charles A. Wilds, who said that he merely wanted to drive the horse out as far as the home of some relatives, who lived a little over six miles from the town. The witness said the prisoner answered the description given him by his (the former's) son.

The prisoner after being warned by the magistrate that he was not free to give testimony, and that what he said would be used against him, testified that he had hired the horse from Pennock's livery man, stating that he would keep the horse for a week. The prisoner was sent back to Stouffville for trial.

Bertha Wilson, who accompanied Wilds on his driving tour, also appeared before the magistrate on the charge of vagrancy. She was remanded until to-morrow, when a more serious charge may be preferred against her.
