

THOUSANDS OF DOCTORS PRESCRIBE "SAFE CURE"

Exclusively For All Forms of Kidney, Liver, Bladder and Blood Diseases.

DR. FRANK M. SIBSON, LYONS, N. Y., TELLS HOW HIS PATIENT, J. A. NOBLE, A SUFFERER FOR YEARS WITH THE WORST FORM OF KIDNEY DISEASE, WAS COMPLETELY

CURED BY WARNER'S SAFE CURE

THE DOCTOR'S STORY:

"Warner's Safe Cure was first called to my attention a number of years ago by a patient of mine, Mr. J. A. Noble, a prominent miller of Williamsport, Pa., where I was then practicing. He told me that no other medicine helped him so much as Warner's, and after studying his case I advised him to keep on taking it. He had been suffering from Chronic Diabetes for thirty years. I was the family doctor and watched the effect of Warner's carefully and became convinced of its great value. Mr. Noble lived to be 70 years of age, which in itself speaks highly of the virtues of Warner's."

"Since that time I have used Safe Cure with most beneficial results. From the experience of a practice stretching over 42 years, I have no hesitation in stating that Safe Cure is the most valuable specific for Bright's Disease, Diabetes, and all forms of acute and chronic kidney disease. I prescribe it myself, and am glad to add my indorsement to that of my brother physicians who are commending it."

—Frank M. Sibson, M. D., Lyons, N. Y.

More suffering and death result from affections of the kidneys than from all other diseases, and principally because they are not discovered in time.

Kidney disease works along slowly and steadily, and often gets a firm hold in the system long before you even suspect it. If you have the slightest doubt about your condition you should at once TEST YOUR KIDNEYS AT HOME. reddish-brown sediment forms or if particles of the waste matter out of the body, and if allowed to run on without treatment, uric acid will clog the blood and poison the whole system, causing serious complications and death in convulsions.

If you have pains in the back, uric acid poison, rheumatic pains and swellings, gout, gravel, diabetes, Bright's disease, inflammation of the bladder and urinary organs, scalding pains when you urinate, eczema, jaundice, torpid liver; or, if a woman, bearing-down sensation, fainting spells, painful periods or so-called female weakness, your kidneys have been seriously affected for months, as outward symptoms seldom show themselves until the disease has been working a long time.

There is not a minute to be lost—get a 50-cent bottle of Safe Cure at your druggist's. It will relieve you at once and effect a permanent cure.

Ready for The Republican Gathering

IN CHICAGO.

THIS ONE WILL BE QUITE TAME.

A Cut And Dried Affair, And Roosevelt To Be The Candidate—Visitors Are Not Flocking To Chicago in Great Numbers.

Special to The Whig.—Chicago, June 18.—There is little or nothing in evidence about the streets and public places of Chicago, to-day, that would indicate that the republican national convention is but three days off. Few visitors have arrived as yet and practically none of the delegates has put in an appearance, excepting those party leaders directly concerned with the arrangements for the gathering. The situation is in striking contrast to the turmoil and confusion that has marked the eve of all previous political conventions in Chicago.

Viewed in comparison with the conventions of former years that of next week is bound to be the tamest affair. The thousands of persons throughout the country who make it a point to attend one or the other of the political conventions every four years and would as soon think of missing it as they would of missing the circus on its annual visit to their native beach are likely to be disappointed if they come to Chicago.

With the ticket agreed on in advance and little or no difference of opinion among the party managers as to the platform, the republican national convention this year could not be expected to be otherwise than a cut and dried affair. The visitor who comes from a distance to attend the convention does so with the expectation of seeing a wild scramble for the nomination or a fierce contest over the resolutions with the oratorical outbursts and fervid debates that accompany such contests.

The public is well aware that the proceedings in the Coliseum next week will be little more than a formal ratification of the decisions previously reached by those in possession of the destinies of the republic. There will be no brilliant extempore speeches, or, at least, not to the extent that has characterized former conventions. The principal speeches that are to be delivered are already prepared and for the most part are known to the party chiefs. It is safe to say that such a master of epigrams as ex-Governor Black of New York, an orator of the "grand-anglo" variety like Cotton D. Huluth, not to mention a score or more of gifted speakers among the republican members of congress, and all of whom will be called on to address the convention, the gathering can hardly be lacking in interest. At the same time it is not to be denied that a stirring impromptu speech of the "cross of gold and crown and thorns" brand appeals more to the galleries of the most polished speakers. This, it is felt, is the principal reason why visitors are not flocking to Chicago in any great numbers at the present time.

CLEAR UP MYSTERY.

Confessed Murder For Which Another Suffered. Kansas City, Mo., June 18.—In surrendering himself to the police William Miles, sixty years old, cleared up a murder for which William Waltham spent twenty years in the Montana penitentiary at Butte and subsequent years in the Kansas City State Penitentiary. Miles declared he had killed John Edwards, a railway brakeman, at Deer Lodge, Montana, over twenty years ago. His motive in confessing, he said, was to ease his conscience and clear Waltham's name. Miles is a railroad laborer.

Will Be Free To-Morrow.

Manchester, N. H., June 18.—A case that attracted wide attention five years ago will come to an end to-morrow when H. F. Bailey, former cashier of the Colebrook National Bank, will be released from Hillsboro county jail after having completed a sentence of five years for violating the United States banking laws by permitting depositors to overdraw their accounts to the amount of $35,000. The Colebrook National Bank was closed December 28th, 1906, and the affairs of the Colebrook Savings Bank were also tied up for a time on account of irregularities. Both institutions were found to be solvent, however, and soon resumed business, no depositors losing a dollar. Much sympathy was expressed for the convicted cashier, as it was generally believed that he had no intention of committing fraud.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

What Is In Thoughts of Dairy-men.

With all new dairy utensils two items should be considered. One is will it cheapen production? and the other is, will it improve the product? Between the milkster who sings as he milks and the one who sweats, there is likely to be a great moral difference and in the value of the employer.

Feed a cow according to her appetite and digestive and assimilative capacity and not according to age, breed, size or previous condition of service.

The man who furnishes unclean milk for consumption or to the creamery deserves no consideration. Unclean milk from one herd may spoil the whole day's receipts.

The dairyman who looks after the comfort of his cows will get the most out of them. He will lessen the cost of milk production, which is the same thing as increase in price.

The department of agriculture at Ottawa will operate fifteen creameries in the North-West Territories during the season. British Columbia can boast of one of two of the best equipped and largest creameries in the dominion.

Properly washed strainer, milk pans or any utensils used about milk affects the flavor of butter. Cleanliness is the most important adjunct to the dairy business. When everything is kept clean there is little complaint of bacteria or trouble.

Dairying has become with competition a complex industry which takes in the whole of breeding, feeding and directing the individuality of the cow as well as a study of grain rations and feeding with an understanding of the principles of milk-giving.

While the merits of the farm separator are generally understood, dairy-men in many instances fail to appreciate that it is an invention applicable to their own individual conditions, and that to everyone separating cream from milk it offers better results.

A good dairy converts the vegetation of the farm into a finished product, and so concentrates it that it can be put upon the market at a low cost for transportation. Grain raising and stock raising tend to deplete the fertility of the farm. Dairying, if properly managed can be made the means of increasing the fertility.

AFTER OTHER HELP FAILED.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restore a Young Lady To Full Health and Strength.

Doctors and nurses recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because they have seen their wonderful power to make new, rich, red blood, and to cure all diseases due to poor blood or weak nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a common medicine. They do not purge and weaken. They contain no poisonous drugs. They are safe, sure, simple, stimulating and scientific.

That is why these pills should be taken by all who are weak, bloodless, nervous and sickly. Here is a bit of very positive proof of the wonderful power to conquer disease which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills possess; Miss Esther E. Lewis, Lynn, N.S., says: "At the age of sixteen my health failed me completely. At that time I was attacked by a grippe, which was followed by measles, from the after-effects of which I was left in a deplorable condition. I became very pale, suffered from headaches, dizziness and want of appetite. I tried several medicines, but they did me no good; on the contrary I was growing weaker, and finally became so bad that I would take spells of unconsciousness lasting from fifteen minutes to an hour at a time, and I had become so weak that I could hardly move about. At this stage I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have good reason to bless the day I began their use. I had only taken a few weeks when I began to recover and under their continued use for some time longer I fully regained my former good health. I will be glad if my experience will be of benefit to some other poor sufferer."

When buying the pills see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is printed on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Sayings AND Comments

BY CAPTAIN CHARTRAND.

Oh! My! There is a young lady, a Miss Elsie Whelan, at Wayne, Pa., a millionaire by trade, and a gentleman, Robert Gosset, of New York, I think, another millionaire by profession, who are to be married.

Professional millionaires are holding entrancing positions in this world of ours. They are silly, cute, idiot, tall, small, stinky, any thing goes with them. They marry, they divorce, they remarry the same woman, all right, for they have the money to buy any laws or pay for their pranks and fancies. They take their meals in ball-rooms, on horseback, in stables, in Easter eggs, on stilts, underground, under water, any where where common-sense is absent, and everybody read the reports and are curious.

A young man millionaire is generally womanish in his appearance, clean shaven; no moustache, for any sign of natural manhood is odious to him. A young girl millionaire is capricious, spoiled, good-hearted, a splendid coquette and fond of divorce, after some odd days of marriage. Divorce is the up-to-date maximum of fashion for beautiful young girls of millions. What would be the use of fortune and beauty, if there was only one man to possess these charms and treasures? The great fathers, the fathers of millionaires, as a rule, got rich for the simple object and purpose to have silly children. Silly children are taught the elegant science of expenses, of useless expenses, and it's a great boon to tradesmen, or other useful men, for they so get back the money the millionaire's forerunners had squeezed out of them.

Millionaires of both sexes are very proud of their silliness, for it's the only special way they have to distinguish themselves.

Well, Miss Elsie Whelan, went to St. Mary's church, at Wayne, Pa., with the bridesmaids, groom and best man to rehearse her marriage ceremony. Miss Alice Roosevelt, the lovely daughter of the strenuous president of the United States, was one of the bridesmaids. The organist was late and H. Gosset and Miss Elsie, while waiting for the musical gentleman, had to stand very many good-humored jokes from the attending party. It was a rich display of select cheap witticisms.

At last the ceremony of the rehearsal began and was repeated three times. One of the ushers or masters of ceremony got angry at a certain moment and said so, for the bridesmaids kept time with their heads and tips of their parasols on the pavement of the holy sanctuary. Miss Alice Roosevelt, the daughter of the strenuous president, jocularly rebuked the usher for his untimely remarks, and told him Elsie had found out it was a great fun, quite new, to keep time to the music, with heels and parasols. The joke, thus approved by the ineffable Miss Alice, was decreed to be very refined, and the keeping time was accompanied with a vim.

At a critical moment, Mrs. Craig Biddle, the matron of honor, came to the front, when she had to raise the bride's veil. But she could not do it, while holding her parasol. What was she to do? Grave question. E. Gordon Mills, another playful millionaire said to her: "Well, tuck it under your arm."

"No," said Miss Harrison, "let the bride hold it." "Horror," put in M. Chantrelair, a leader in good taste. Then followed a long and serious debate. At last it was decided that the matron would lay her parasol on the chancel steps. This ended this sensational controversy.

Three times the rehearsal took place, as I said, and after the third time it was pronounced to be perfect. Of course, Miss Elsie Whelan's gown is from Paris, and an airy floating creation at that. The bridesmaids will have pink dresses and parasols. And after this if M. Gosset and Miss Whelan are not happy in marriage, I would like to face the man who dares to say the contrary. And who dares to intervene, one of these days, as the thing happens at times in the best regulated communities, it will simply be one of these voluntary divorces which please both parties. In the meanwhile, while marriage lasts, the two will be happy but wont have many children.

Mind you, I don't despise millionaires, on the contrary I envy them; and if I was one of them, I would likely be proud to be as silly as they are. Unhappily I am not a millionaire, so I write spiteful things against those that are. What a pity though I am not a millionaire, for if I was I would build a summer hotel, suppress the curfew and cut down the dead limbs and trees, from our streets and parks; I would not forget even the green sward around our armours.
