A Rare Treat.
Verona, June 18.—The townsfolk were given a rare musical treat in Asseline's hall last Friday evening, when through the kindness of the Messrs. Mellroy, High Falls, their extensive collection of selections were given on their especially made gramophone. Although the entertainment was of an impromptu nature, the commodious hall was packed. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Mellroy for their painstaking complimentary entertainment.

His Farewell Sermon.
Lalimer, June 17.—Farmers are busy planting potatoes, corn, etc. Rev. Mr. Ferguson gave us an excellent sermon on Sunday night. Rev. Mr. Meredith will preach his farewell sermon Sunday. The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Dougherty last week and presented Mrs. Meredith with a quilt. Miss Lizzie Huggison is on the sick list. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lyon and Mrs. Greenwood, city, at S. Lyon's; Mrs. G. Hunter, city, at P. Edwards'; Miss P. Smith at C. Smith's; J. Allison at J. Sherman's; Miss Anna Simkins, Oxford Mills, at M. Ware'; Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson at Charles Perry's; Mrs. G. McFarlane, Spafordton, at D. McFarlane's.

Kaladar Notes.
Kaladar, June 17.—C. Godfrey is erecting a store which makes a good addition to the King Edward. Messrs. Oliver, Beatty and Allore have taken the contract of blasting the Actinolite rock near the station. Mrs. J. Norton left to-day for Kingston to visit her sisters. Mrs. H. Alport and Miss Effie Picketing returned after spending a week visiting near Kingston. Mrs. Wilson, Napanea, is spending a few days at the Algerian. Miss Guess and Miss Burnett, Perry Road, were the guests of Miss Effie Picketing on Sunday. A Fleming moved into the new residence, back work. People are passing here en route to the Echo Inn, Massanoga Lake. A little boy has come to stay at Edward Shuman's.

Long Lake Items.
Long Lake, June 20.—H. A. May passed through here last week, giving a concert in the schoolhouse two nights with gramophone and moving pictures, also taking a photograph of the pupils. The crop of hay is the best for years past. Grain is also good, except in some low ground. The apple crop is very good, but many trees were killed by the severe winter. The cheese factory received 13,000 pounds of milk last Monday. Levi Grant and George Babcock are each building new houses. George A. Drew sold a team of horses. David Drew sold one. All brought good prices. The mines are taking out a quantity of ore and good inducements are offered for hauling ore. James Love has bought Hotelia Beverley's farm and H. Beverley has bought Alfred Barr's farm, Mountain Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Zara Vanlaven, Moscow, are at Alfred Charlton's.

Busy Fence-Making.
Sunbury, June 20.—The appearance of all growing crops are in a most promising condition, and should favorable conditions continue, a most beautiful harvest will result. A number of farmers are busily engaged in the erection of stables and in all instances a most notable improvement can be seen. Local factories weekly can be seen. The cheese factory, taking advantage of the changeable condition of the market which occasionally has a tendency to improve. D. Stinson has recently erected a fine horse barn and drive shed on the place the former one stood, which a few weeks ago was destroyed by fire. J. Toland has improved his kitchen with a most creditable appearance. Statute labor will in general be accomplished this week. A number of the pathmasters are making preparations this early morning. Mrs. A. Smith, Queen street, is quite indisposed through illness. The Macrae Society will conduct a Garden party on W. Shannon's lawn on Thursday evening, and for that evening.

THROWING TROOPS INTO PORT ARTHUR BEFORE JAPANESE CUT RAILWAY LINE.

The first important order of Gen. Kouropatkin was the recall of the Russian forces from Korea and the removal of military headquarters from Port Arthur to Harbin. When the Japanese began their march on the lower 3,000 infantry, who were hurriedly thrown into Port Arthur to aid the regular garrison in case of a Japanese attempt to capture Port Arthur. Now that the Japs have landed 50,000 men and won the battle of Kin-Chow, it is evident that a terrific struggle will be necessary before the yellow infantry gains the top of Golden Hill, which overlooks the city of Port Arthur, and which forms the final key to the Russian position in Southern Man-ing a road programme has been prepared. Local stores report a very flourishing trade. W. Garrett is busy in the line of fence-making. Planting which was greatly retarded by the wet weather, has all been finished. City agents are planting certain lines of machinery here and there throughout this district.

Two Merry Picnics.
Charleston, June 20.—Things are rather quiet at Charleston, but a few guests at the hotels at present. A great many people seem to be suffering from severe colds. On Saturday, 18th, Mr. and Mrs. D. Beach invited a number of their relatives to enjoy a picnic at Charleston Lake. The picnic was in honor of Mrs. Steacy and children, of Central City, Neb., who have been visiting their relatives here since December and who expect to leave for home next week. Mrs. Steacy went to Nebraska, when she was only eleven years old, and has lived there twenty-two years. None of her relatives had seen her since except her brother, John Schofield, until her arrival in December with her four children. The picnic party included Mr. and Mrs. J. Schofield and children, Mr. and Mrs. M. Schofield and children, Mr. and Mrs. Young and children, Mr. and Hudson and children, Mrs. Steacy and children, Mrs. Schofield, Miss Ruthie Wiltis, Master Charlie Yates and Mrs. Beach. On Saturday last the same party again went out to Delta Park, and the two picnics will long be remembered by Mrs. Steacy, when she is in her far away home in Nebraska. Statute labor is being done at present.

Stood The Test Well.
Narrows-on-the-Rideau, June 16.—Pastures are good; meadows will give above the ordinary yield. Many farms in this section have not planted their corn yet and some have to plant the second time. Traffic on the Rideau is brisk. The Smith's Falls Machine agent here, is doing a great business in mowers, rakes and other implements. A great picnic is promised here on June 25th, to help pay off a debt on the school. A string band from the north will furnish music for dancing, and Newburgh Masonic Brass Band, will also be on hand. A wedding is on the board for next week; one of our young men will wed a fair lady of Westport. Visitors during the week: M. J. Hadden, Landsdowne, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of Crosby; Mr. Manhard of Fairfield; P. J. Quinn, of Micaville. Frank Renaud has finished his contract here and returned to Westport. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Greenon contemplated a trip to New York city to visit friends and relatives. The Narrows road, as usual, took the lead at Ontario cheese factory, maintaining the highest test for May milk. We have no silos here. Many farmers in the surrounding country have bought carriages. J. Delong, of Kingston, representing the DeLong company, was through here this week. James Houghlan, who spent the winter in these parts, has sold out his farm property here and returned to the Western States.

Cheese Factory Busy.
Keelville, June 18.—The recent rains have drowned a large quantity of grain in this vicinity. Rev. G. A. Bell and Mrs. Bell are home after attending conference in Montreal. We are glad to have Mr. Bell with us for the second year, as he is well liked by all the people. The farmers have all nearly finished planting. The cheese factory is doing a rushing business under the management of Rontree brothers, Morton. A large quantity of milk is brought in daily. Charles Clarke has the wall under his barn almost completed. Joseph Keeler is preparing to build a cement wall under his barn. George T. Clarke has been remodelling his house which adds to its appearance. Clarence Hanley is all smiles; it's a boy, Charles Moore is still very poorly. William Loucks is sawing lumber. People are looking forward to the celebration to be held in Bathurst on the Twelfth of July. The triumphant wave is about to sweep over Keelville, we extend our congratulations to our mutual carrier on his recent marriage. Miss B. K. Woods has resigned her position as teacher. Visitors: J. J. Robb, B.A., Kingston, at J. Robb's; Mrs. George McFarlane of Bathurst; Miss N. and G. Sleath.

Orange Meat Premiums.
Period of coupons extended until the first of January next, 1905. The premium period for using Orange Meat coupons has been extended from July 1st, 1904, to January 1st, 1905. All coupons are good, which ever date is marked on them. Orange Meat is the most popular cereal on the Canadian market. It is made from Canadian hard wheat by a new process and is both nutritious and pleasant to the taste. The premiums include heavy silver-plated spoons, sugar shells and butter knives. Full directions are in each package.

The best ice cream I ever tasted is at Gibson's Red Cross drug store fountain, said a customer to-day. While the plotters schemes the plodder gets there.

TO BUILD ROADS

In Old Fashioned Way—Family Feud Over Land.
Phillipsville, June 20.—Many of the farmers have been hard at work the past week putting in corn and late alfalfa. Some have planted their potatoes again, the first having rotted in the ground. New meadows, especially those on the high lands, never looked better. They promise a great yield, in some places clover is down already. Upland spring grain is looking fine. Corn that did come through the wet alive is looking rather feeble. Samuel Carr has the contract to put down several hundred tile for Mr. Merriman, near Singleton's Corners. Harry Coon has put up two large piles of stone for the stone crusher on his road division.

Kingston, at W. Dixon's; Mr. and Mrs. T. Clarke, Miss Ethel Clarke, Cedar Lake; P. T. Clarke, Milburn, at C. Clarke's; Mr. and Mrs. B. Shannon and little daughter Annie, at G. E.
