Detroit Specialist Discovers Something Entirely New for the Cure of Men's Diseases in Their Own Homes.

YOU PAY ONLY IF CURED.

Experts No Money Unless He Cures You—Method and Full Particulars Sent Free—Write for It This Very Day.

A Detroit specialist who has 14 certificates and diplomas from medical colleges and state boards of medical examiners, has perfected a startling method of curing the diseases of men in their own homes; so that there may be no doubt in the mind of any man that he has both the method and the ability to do as he says. Dr. Goldberg, the discoverer, will send the method entirely free to all men who send him their names and state that they have been unable to get cured of any of the following diseases: Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Prostate trouble, actual weakness, varicocele, loss of manhood, blood poison, hydrocele, enlargement of the testicles, etc. His wonderful method not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney trouble, heart disease, nervous debility, etc. The doctor believes that it is one thing to make a cure, and when you are cured he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. It would seem, therefore, that it is to the best interests of every man who suffers in this way to write the doctor confidentially and lay your case before him, and if he accepts your case for treatment it is equivalent to a cure, as he does not under any circumstances incur any charge for treatment, and remember, if he does accept your case you may pay when you are cured. He sends the method, as well as his booklet on the subject, containing the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address him simply: Dr. S. Goldberg, 288 Woodward Ave., Room 1122, Detroit, Mich., and it will all immediately be sent you free.

DR. S. GOLDBERG, The Possessor of 14 Diplomas and Certificates, Who Wants No Money That He Does Not Earn.

ONCE A YEAR

Is a Church Used For Night Service.

On Easter eve the ancient church of St. Mary in Arden, near Market Harbour, is opened for its annual service. On no other night is the building used for worship.

The parish choir attend at midnight, and after a short service they march to the grave of William Hubbard, and there sing an Easter hymn. For thus perpetuating this dead man's memory the singers receive a guinea, derived from a rent charge on a house in Market Harbour.

The Kenilworth ceremony of the Riddenden cases is well known. Every Easter Sunday since 1134, a thousand buns, stamped in the effigy of Eliza and Mary Chalkhurst, who were born with joined bodies in the manner of the Siamese twins, are distributed to the congregation at the afternoon service in Riddenden Church.

In addition the surplus income from their bequest of lands provides 500 loaves and proportionate cheese for distribution among the poor of the parish.

At Hallaton, in Leicestershire, the rector, as the holder of certain lands, is required to provide his parishioners with two large hare pies, two dozens of penny loaves, and a quantity of ale. Receiving these goods at the rectory the villagers march in procession to a piece of ground known as Harropie Bank. There the pies and loaves are scrambled for, and then the men of Hallaton match themselves against their neighbors of Melbourn in a bottle-kicking contest for the ale.

The Windsor Magazine described some curious customs in connection with land tenure. Whenever a certain estate at Chingford, in Essex, passes into new hands, the owner, with his wife, manservant and maid-servant, goes to the manor house and pays homage by blowing three blasts upon a horn. He carries a hawk upon his fist, and his servant leads a greyhound, both supposed to be for the use of the rector for that day. The newcomer receives a chicken for the hawk, a peck of oats for his horse, and a loaf of bread for his greyhound. After dinner the owner blows three more blasts, and then with his party withdraws from the rectory.

The "Caster Whip Tenure" is even more remarkable. On Palm Sunday every year a servant from the Broughton estate attends service as Caster Church with a new cart-whip, and after cracking it three times in the porch, marches with it to the manor house. When the clergyman begins the sermon the servant quits his seat. A purse containing thirty pieces of silver is fixed at the end of the whip-lash, and kneeling on a cushion, he holds the purse suspended over the head of the clergyman until the end of the sermon. Then purse and whip are left at the manor-house.

The "Whisper Court" at Rockford, Essex, is a strange Michaelmas observance held under the superintendence of the steward of the manor. The business of the court is carried out at midnight in the open air. The absence of a tenant is punishable by a fine of double his rent for each hour he fails to be in attendance; no artificial light except a firebrand is permitted; the proceedings are recognized by means of one of the embers of the brand. The roll of fourteen tenants is called over and answered to in a whisper, and then they kneel and swear allegiance. The explanation of this odd ceremony is that very many years ago the lord of the manor, after an absence from his estate, was returning home by night. Passing over King's Hill, he accidentally heard some of his discontented tenants plotting his assassination, and, thus warned, he reached home by an unexpected route. He acted that from that time forth the tenants on his estate should assemble every year exactly at the same time to do him homage round a post which he erected on the precise spot where the plotters met.

1,000 Islands And Rochester. Steamers North King and Caspian leave Swift's wharf at 10:17 a.m. daily, except Monday, for Thousand Islands, and at 3 p.m. for Bay of Quinte ports and Rochester. J. P. Hanley, agent.

The latest thing in getting people to go to church is the prank of that New Jersey parson who asked the men to come in their shirt-sleeves, and the women to come without their hats. Some minister now ought to advertise a prize to be given to the man or woman who shall come nearest to guessing the first lines of the hymns to be given out, or to the chapter and verse of the text for the sermon.

Amongst the many notabilities who attended the reception given in London on Dominion day by Lord and Lady Strathcona, were Major and Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Eaton's sister, Miss Fitzandolph, of Fredericton.

The Small Boy

He indulged much too freely in pie and plum cake, and during the night his "tummy" did ache. They ran for the doctor, who knowing the fact, Without hesitation prescribed "Abbey's Salt."

Mothers, who want their children to grow into sturdy men and women instead of pale, sal-low dyspeptics, should see that the youngsters take a morning glass of ABBEY'S SALT. Children eat irregularly—indiscreetly. ABBEY'S SALT strengthens the stomach—regulates the bowels—so that "pain-killer" and "oil" are never needed. So pleasant to take, that mothers have no trouble in teaching the children to use it.
