WAR OVER A MILLION.
Girl To Whom Suicide Left Fortune Must Fight.

New York, July 29.—Bertha Marion Dolbeier's fatal plunge from the ninth floor of the Waldorf Astoria, on July 8th, has precipitated a legal battle for the fortune of the young heiress that promises to become famous in San Francisco, the home of sensational legislation.

Etta Marion Warren, second cousin of Miss Dolbeier, her constant companion, and sole witness of the suicide, who was found to have been made the principal heir of the young woman when her will, dated three months ago, was opened in San Francisco, is not to be permitted to take possession of the actual $700,000 inquest and the stipulated residue which would give her a million and a half, without a bitter struggle.

Dispatches from San Francisco last night conveyed the news that the relatives of Miss Dolbeier, aroused by the circumstances which made Miss Warren heir to most of the Dolbeier millions, have filed notice of a contest. Mental incompetency will be one of the grounds.

There have been will contests without number in California, in which the millions of famous men were the stake, but this is the first time that a woman's million-dollar friendship, beneficiary into fighting quarters.

Wroth that the heiress should cherish a million-dollar friendship for one who was but distantly related, and ignore close relatives, for whom she expressed not even a lukewarm regard, attorneys to demand their rights by reason of family ties.

Charles Asley, a farmer, was killed on the track at Port Hope.

SMOKERS' HEADACHE is very prevalent among pipe-smokers, especially in smoking cigars the effort of drawing the smoke is a trifle compared to that required to keep a pipe lit. This continual effort leaves the smoker after several pipes in a dazed, tired state, which often brings on a headache. To those who smoke heavy tobacco and cigars it is of course a matter of nerves and often a depression of the heart.

Nedrite

is a remarkable cure for this form of headache, as by experiment we have proven that to a certain degree it acts as a sedative, and after normal circulation has been restored it acts as a healthy stimulant. We have on our list of patrons some of the leading cigar and tobacco manufacturers in Canada, who allowed us to sample their factories with gratifying results.
We would like to mail a sample box

A EUROPEAN BEHEADED.
Put To Death By The Chinese At Mukden.

The London Daily Express of July 16th had the following from its correspondent at Paris:
A Moscow paper prints extracts from a letter written by Capt. Kinleff, of the Russian army, in garrison at Mukden, giving a circumstantial account of the execution of a European at the hands of the Chinese.

Capt. Kinleff states that in consequence of it having been reported by a Chinaman in the market place that a European had been that morning put to death by the Chinese authorities, together with a number of Chinese hapless, he was deputed to make inquiries into the matter.

He sent for the Chinaman, who conducted him to the scene of the execution, and there the captain was horrified to discover that one of the headless corpses was that of a European, less the Chinaman had stated. A search was made for the head, but it had been evidently taken away by the Chinese executioner to avoid trouble.

On being questioned, the Chinaman said that, seeing a crowd gathering that morning at the place of execution, he had stopped to see what was going on. Four condemned men were attached to stakes, and the Chinaman at once recognized one of them as a European. His body was so enclosed in a sack that it was impossible to see his clothes, but he wore long hair, and had evidently been a long time in prison.

The man cried out frequently in despairing accents, and raised his head as far as the wooden "cangue" in which it was enclosed would allow him. He called to the Mandarin in approach, and shouted out several times in Chinese, "I am no bandit, I am a European."

Then he began to recite in a foreign tongue, as though praying, but before he had finished the executioner struck off his head.
The Russian authorities are instituting an inquiry into the matter.

Czar and Kaiser To Meet.
St. Petersburg, July 28.—It is believed that the admiralty has received instructions to make preparations for the emperor to accompany personally the first squadron of the Baltic fleet as far as Kiel. There he is to meet the kaiser, who is expected to witness the passage of the Russian ships through the canal.

Naval circles, hopefully expect that this friendly demonstration will intimate to the world the good understanding that exists between the governments of Russia and Germany. Responsible officers who will go with the squadron, say that they expect to receive friendly attention from the German warships attached on the route to the Orient. Already twenty-five of Germany's best officers say they are convinced that the understanding between Russia and Germany is too firmly established to be disturbed by the irregular action of the ships of the volunteer fleet, which does not share the traditions or responsibilities of the navy.

passed the entrance examination in Kingston, obtained 554 marks, not 554, as stated in the Whig of the 21st instant.

FLOURISHING BIG KNIFE HE PURSUES GEO. T. WARD.

Policeman Fells Madman—Murderous Attempt Creates a Panic In The Crowded Exchange Building In The Stock Yards.

Chicago, July 29.—Intense excitement was aroused in the crowded exchange building in the stock yards yesterday by an attempt by a maniac to kill George T. Ward, a member of the commission firm of Alexander Ward & Conover.

Ward's appearance, running through the building pursued by a man flourishing a big knife caused a general exodus. Before the delirious could accomplish any harm, however, he was overpowered by a policeman. The would-be slayer, however, made his way unnoticed into Ward's office in the exchange. Without a word the stranger produced a huge knife from under the coat and made a lunge at Ward with a cry of alarm the commission man leaped from his desk, and ran to the end of the office, where the furnishings formed somewhat of a barricade.

Jumping behind it he faced his assailant. Whitefaced and with set teeth the intruder was obviously a madman. He whetted his knife on his coat sleeve and etchily advanced upon Ward, who jumped over the desks between himself and the door and rushed into the hall.

The assailant followed, yelling and flourishing his murderous weapon. He was almost upon the broker when a well directed blow from a policeman sent the maniac sprawling. The assailant tried to regain his feet and slashed right and left with his knife.
It was knocked from his hand by a blow from a policeman's club, and he was overpowered. He was a Lithuanian unable to speak or understand English. He gave his name as Anton Doreskiot.

TWO WOMEN KILLED.
Accident Near Adams Centre—
Within Few Minutes.

Watertown, N.Y., July 29.—Mrs.
Halley Oatman and her sister, Mrs.
Caroline White, both aged between fifty and sixty years, were struck and almost instantly killed by the northbound club train at a grade crossing a short distance north of Adams centre yesterday afternoon. The two women were in a bus—and were driving toward North Adams, when they approached the crossing the southbound train came down the track.

Several persons signalled to them to stop, but they only whipped up their horses and drove on, either thinking they could pass the crossing before the train or mistaking the train for the local that follows it and thinking it would stop at the station.

The engine struck the buggy and both women were hurled 100 feet. The buggy was completely wrecked, but the horses were thrown, was but slightly injured. Mrs. Oatman was killed instantly and Mrs. White died within a few minutes after the accident. Mrs. Oatman lived about a mile from Adams Centre on the road to North Adams, and her sister lived at Adams Centre. Mrs. Oatman is survived by a husband and one son, Edward, who lives with his parents.

My Lord A Farmer.
Canadian Magazine, are men in high places who are sons of farmers. In Japan the chief subject of Emperor Mutsuhito is a farmer's son. Juzo Ito, the father of Marquis Ito, was a rustic gardener or small farmer, a numerous and respectable class in Japan, where agriculture is the chief industry.
The average farmer, is however, continent two acres in extent. Juzo Ito had ambitions. He could not carry two swords, since he was not born a Samurai. He negotiated for his rank when an opportunity presented itself, and purchased superior position. He did not become a Samurai, but he secured a rank which enabled him to wear the coveted two swords. This, of course, helped his son, Hirobumi Ito, although he too had difficulties to face. He required education and travel. As a common sailor on a merchant ship he made his way to England. As a starving student, he led a solitary life at the Erie settlement, New York. He surmounted all difficulties, patiently here great hardships, and has been prime minister of Japan four times. His great characteristic in private life is his love of reading.
He devotes five or six hours a day to Japanese, German, English, French and Chinese books, and periodicals. He is a student to-day, as in his young days. He is no orator, and seldom makes speeches. He thinks. He has been the thinker of the Japanese nation. He is not worshipped by his people, but he is held in great respect; his reputation abroad.

Oso Station, July 28.—The farmers are busy having, which is an abundant crop. The sale at John A.

everything sold at a good price. Rev.
Mr. Smith purchased a horse from

The Small Store.
Philadelphia Record.
A great merchant says that "many small merchants in the cities doubt the value of advertising in their own case. These men fail to take into consideration the fact that in many instances the department store began as a neighborhood store and increased his business by judicious advertising. Advertising is just as profitable for the small business as for the large one. Newspaper publicity comes first."
