THE RUSSIANS

Are Said to be in Very Great Danger

IN HAICHENG.

THE JAPANESE HAVE TAKEN THIS STRONGHOLD.

Hot Fighting in Roaring Hot Weather—Hope To Hold Their Own in Their Main Positions—The Japanese Hero is Now a Naval Officer—A Woman Leads Them.

Special to the Whig. London, Aug. 3.-It is reported in New Chung that the Japanese have captured Haicheng.

A despatch to the Paris Temps, from Haicheng, dated August 1st, says that the Japanese have been for three days vigorously attacking the Russian positions south and south-east of Haicheng.

Although the Japanese consist apparently of three divisions, a large proportion of their troops are fresh. The weather continues fine.

Although the Japanese telegrams are lacking in details, it seems probable that the heaviest fighting of the war has occurred near Haicheng and Liao Yang, resulting in the severe defeat of the Russians.

Although the report of the occupation of Haicheng is not confirmed this latest Russian reverse is regarded as marking an important stage of the campaign. Haicheng has been always regarded as one of the strongest places of Manchuria.

NOT A GREAT THING. What a Tory Scribe, And What a Scribe Said. "Fifteen minutes before Ganey began to speak at Sydenham, yesterday, there was a hardly a person in Sydenham other than residents, and fifteen minutes after Ganey had finished there was not a face seen other than those belonging to people living in the town. And I know every man living in the district, too," so spoke one of our good dyed-in-the-wool conservative citizens this morning. "And about one-third of those present were girls," he concluded.

"Well, that just about puts all your grand statements about the intense enthusiasm prevailing and the great throng of attentive listeners, in the shingle and sizes up the weight your Tory leader and demagogue carries with the people of Ontario. Why even the Portsmouth philosopher forgot about the event entirely and failed to attend. Perhaps the warm weather, but the scribe was unable to conclude his remarks and was last seen rushing headlong up Princess street closely pursued by an angry and ardent politician.
