Orange Meat. The Premium Food. SAVED BY HER HAIR. American Woman Seized As Spy In Korea.

Mrs. G. K. Johnson, formerly Miss Mary Lang of Elkhart, Ind., has arrived in San Francisco from Korea and gives an interesting account of conditions that prevailed there just prior to her departure.

The traveller tells of an interesting episode connected with her arrest as a spy. She was attempting to take a picture of the fortified terraces at Mobji, a beautiful city, when she was arrested. She had trouble in securing her release.

Mrs. Johnson, who is a young and beautiful woman, has a crown of snowy white hair out of keeping with her years. It was this that saved her. The Danish captain of a little vessel which was to take the Americans across to Japan played upon the reverence which the Koreans and Japanese have for age, and, removing Mrs. Johnson's hat, he talked long and exaggeratedly of her years, extending them to nearly 100, securing her release.

Against the entire party were placed under guard and remained so for four hours. After this period a courier approached waving the American flag, and they knew their liberty was secured.

STOLEN BABE RESCUED FROM HER FATHER'S FORMER SERVANT.

Daughter of One of Denmark's Richest Men Taken From a Chicago Couple, Said to Have Demanded $200,000 Ransom For The Child.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Aug. 4.—Elsie Gellert, the Danish child said to be on her way from Chicago to Philadelphia and New York in charge of a representative of the Danish consulate in New York, who is alleged to have rescued her from kidnappers who demanded $200,000, is about four years old and had been in the care of Wilhelm Jensen and his wife for over two years at Fredericia, Island of Jutland.

They loved the child and when last summer Gellert, the father of Elsie, wanted to take the child home again, the Jensens were intransigent, whereupon Gellert relented and permitted the child to remain one month more with his foster parents, who said they would go to Nestved, Island of Seeland.

Instead of so doing they fled to America. When Gellert discovered their flight he instituted proceedings against the Jensens on the charge of kidnaping. Jensen, who is a former fish merchant, and his wife, are considered to be respectable people.

Gellert, according to a Chicago despatch, is one of the richest men in Denmark and one of his estates is said to be situated at Fredericia. Jensen, according to the story, formerly was Gellert's valet. Detectives are reported to have traced the Jensens through New York, Erie, Buffalo and Cleveland, and finally to Chicago, where they were, according to the despatch from Chicago, arrested by Chief of Police O'Neil. The child is understood to be on her way to New York in charge of George Beck, representing the Danish consulate, who, in turn, is understood to be acting under the orders of the Danish minister at Washington.

TO BRING BACK THIEF. Caught By Rochester Police—Has Bad Record.

P.C. Bateson left yesterday, on the steamer Kingston, for Rochester, N.Y., where he has gone for the purpose of bringing back to this city Alfred T. Gallagher, who was arrested, Tuesday night, by the Rochester police, on a charge of stealing $80, and a Kruger pin from George Greer, the second wine-corker at the Hotel Randolph.

Gallagher had been hanging around the hotel for several days past, and was seen in the hall near Greer's room shortly before the steamer King, left for Charlotte on the afternoon of the theft. Greer left his room soon after four in the afternoon, and when he returned a half an hour later, he discovered the theft. He immediately suspected Gallagher, as the latter's reputation is none of the best. John McKenty, night porter in the name hotel, also claims that he had $20 stolen from his pocket, there was $16 in his pockets at the time, but only a $2 bill was taken.

The Rochester police were communicated with by Chief Baillie and Gallagher was arrested when he stepped on the boat at Charlotte. Greer accompanied P.C. Bateson to Rochester, last night, and if Gallagher is willing to come back for trial he will be brought back at once; if not, extradition proceedings will be necessary. Gallagher is the same man who stole a horse from a farmer by the name of Vair, from the shed of the Windsor hotel a couple of years ago. He served a term for that offense and this is his first appearance in Kingston since that time.

When Gallagher was arrested in Charlotte he had a considerable sum of money in his possession, also a Kruger pin, and that there is little doubt but that he was the thief.

AT THE WATERTOWN MEET. Favorites Win Two Events, But Lose in Pace.

Watertown, N.Y., Aug. 3.—About 800 people saw three good races here this afternoon. Favorites won the 2:30 pace and the 2:22 trot, but both favorites, Daisy Wilkes and Honest Joe, were beaten in the 2:17 pace. In the second heat of the 2:17 pace Rosena's sulky fouled and smashed that of Cecil R., but neither of the horses or the race was injured.

Rosena was set back to eighth place for the foul. In the last heat of the 2:17 pace the judges put up Harvey Sheldon to drive out Maud Wilkes, but he succeeded no better than had Lakeland. Sheldon is employed as trainer for W. H. Cotstock, of Brockville, who was one of the heaviest bettors against Maud Wilkes. Results: 2:30 pace—Lady Hal, Cecil R., Nellie C. Pax, Parker, Daisy Wilkes, 2:17—Sphinx, Dean Swift, Honest Joe, Maude Wilkes. 2:22 trot—Bell Bud, Jeff McGregor, Rosena, Elkhorn, Copper Cain.

A Warning To Mothers. Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, aromatic oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the disease may be checked in its incipient stage and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by all druggists.
