Judges Say It Was Result of Ignorance.

Newmarket, Sept. 23.—In giving judgment on the case of E. J. Davis, for having employed in his organization a man whom the judges had recently for corrupt practices, Chief Justice Boyd commented at some length. He said: "It is not to be wondered at that he made a mistake as to the law. Others much more competent to understand it have been mistaken also, but while this excuses him from any moral culpability it does not clear him of the legal responsibility."
