

Told in the Twilight

Mrs. Allaire Shortt threw open "Ostrich" her pretty summer home on the corner of Union and Centre streets, on Thursday afternoon, to a large number of her friends in town. In the drawing-room people were greeted not only by the hostess, but by Mrs. John Shortt, with whom all enjoyed a brief chat, and the Rev. John Shortt was in the hallway with a kindly word to all of his daughter-in-law's guests. In the tea-room Miss Emily Muckleston and Miss Crisp poured coffee and made tea, and the waitresses were Miss Constance Cooke, Miss Straubenzee, Miss Scott, Miss Ethelwyn Loucks, and Miss Mildred Cooke. Beautiful white flowers were carelessly arranged in a low bowl in the middle of the tea-table, and in drawing-room, hall, and dining-room, red and white dahlias were the floral garniture. As Mrs. Shortt intends to begin at once to get ready for her return to New York, she will not be at home on Tuesday, her "good-bye" being accompanied by a "come and see me next year," an invitation which all those who received it will gladly avail themselves of. A few of the guests were Mrs. Leonard Mills, Mrs. Baxter Shortt, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. A. W. Cooke, Mrs. Pense, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Machar, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. J. M. Platt, Mrs. D. M. Gordon, Mrs. Adam Shortt, Mrs. D. Marshall, Mrs. Hiram Calvin, Mrs. Alex. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Stafford Kirkpatrick, Miss Annie Muckleston, Miss Gibson, Miss Sarah Gleason, Miss Bates, the Misses Straubenzee, Miss Crisp, Miss Flaws, Miss Molena, Miss Minnie Gordon, Mrs. Waldron, the Misses Waldron, Miss Marion Calvin, Miss Etta Callaghan, Miss Maudie, Miss Margaret Maudie, Miss Mowat, Miss Daisy Carr, Miss Mona Knight, the Misses McIntyre, of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Jean Paterson, Miss Fairlee.

On their return in a couple of weeks' time, they will begin housekeeping, in Miss Folger's house, on Sydenham street, just vacated by Colonel and Mrs. Buchanan. A very pleasant hour at one of yesterday's teas was spent examining the collection. Another collection in town contains some most amusing ones struck off in Tokio, the very day following the first attack on Port Arthur, and representing four bereaved complacent Russian officers, watching a theatrical performance, while in the distance their battleships are going down. Another represents four jolly Jap tars dancing a horapoe on a promontory, while they watch the flag at the mast head of a Russian vessel sink beneath the waters, the moon looking on with a fenshish grin.

Successful Mothers.

You will always find that the mothers who are successful in bringing up families of healthy children are those who are careful to note the slightest evidence of illness and to check it at once. The wise mother gives her children Baby's Own Tablets at the first symptom of any childish ailment, and almost at once the little one is all right. Mrs. Thomas Stevenson, 13 Bishop street, Halifax, N.S., says: "It gives me pleasure to be able to speak of the great value of Baby's Own Tablets. I always give them to my children when they are ailing in any way, and they speedily make them well. I would advise every mother to keep the tablets in the house." The tablets allay teething, irritation, cure colic and stomach troubles, prevent constipation, destroy worms, allay fevers and break up colds. They can be given safely to a new born child. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
