WHAT ARE THE FACTS? "They," (the liberals), said Mr. Downey, M.P.P., speaking in Hamilton, "had promised a reduction of the debt. Instead of reducing it they had greatly increased it."

THE YOUNG MEN'S VOTES. It is said that the young men are with the conservative party. Some of them are, and only some. There are liberal young men, many of them, and the proportion is growing all the while.

THE INTENTION. A clergyman reports the following incident as occurring just inside the entrance to one of the largest and most popular New York churches during a crowded service, according to Harper's Weekly.

Be Ready For Croup And Protect Your Children By Keeping In The House Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed And Turpentine. The Thoroughly Tested And Reliable Family Medicine.

QUALITY OF THE WORKS. The correspondent who wrote so lengthily upon the artificial stone walks would have saved himself considerable worry had he talked the matter over with the city engineer.

His Great Ambition. The Mikado is jealous of Laurier. He now wants Port Arthur captured and he has set his eyes on the world will not be transferred, to the gentleman from Quebec East.

Brother Artists. Harper's Weekly. On his last visit to America, Paderewski, the eminent pianist and composer, was introduced, somewhat against his will, to a man of little apparent culture who professed great interest in music and much intimacy with his finer phases.

GRAND SCHEME IMPRESSED WITH IMPORTANCE OF NEW LINE. What Hugh A. Allan Has To Say—Quebec Province Will Again Be In The Liberal Column.

May Hold Seven Seats. "Quebec will return a majority for Sir Wilfrid Laurier," says Marc Sauvalle, editor in chief of Le Canada, Montreal.

The Tunnel Accident at Sarnia should be investigated by the railway commission. There should be no further risk of fatalities which may be avoided. Electric engines should do the tunnel work.

Now it is Mr. Dunlop, an M.P.P., who slanders Mr. Sifton and insinuates that he has accumulated wealth unfairly. Mr. Sifton has made what he has legitimately. He did not steal it.

Good Times in Toronto. Exchange. "I'm sorry Toronto feels the impulse of the good Grit growing time. It has an $8,000,000 increase in assessment and 7,363 in population, although anybody wishing to live in that centre of torydom shows questionable taste."

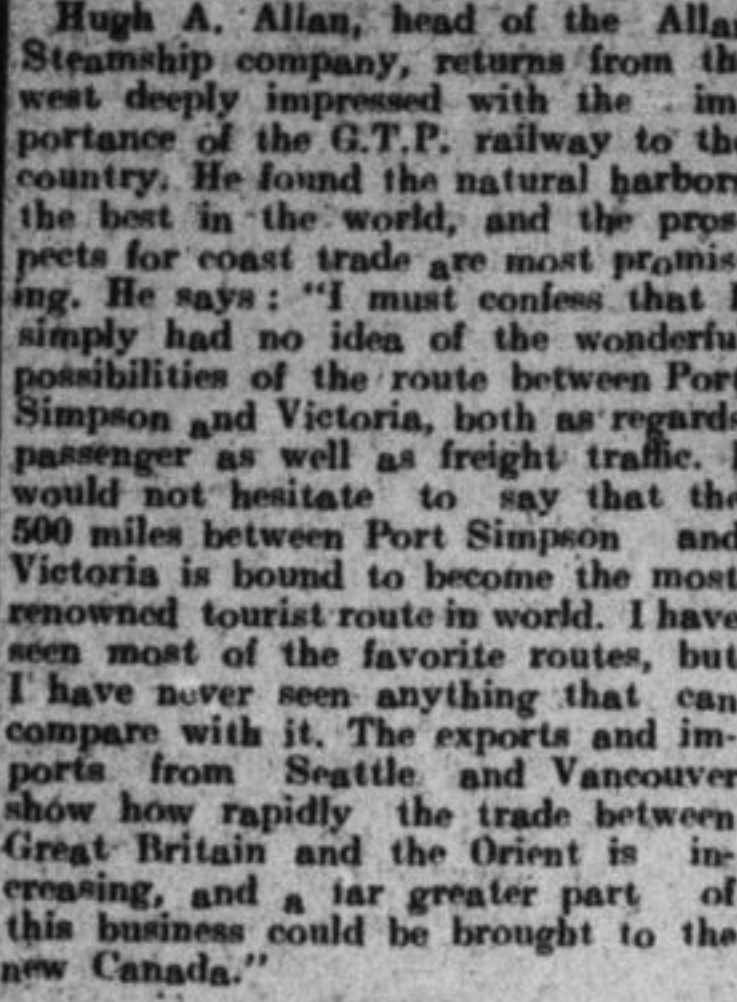

Adulterated Communion Wine. In one of the largest churches of Lexington, Ky., the officers, suspicious of the quality of the communion wine which had been bought as the unadulterated juice of the grape, sent a sample to the state food department for analysis.

Orange Meal. An Ideal Preparation. Baltic Fleet Wanted. Toronto Star. The Japs are buying submarine boats, being unable to wait until they get a chance to convert the Baltic fleet.
