FEW TURKEYS

CAN BE HAD AS SEASON WAS TOO WET

For their raising—Prices Now 10 To 15 Cents a Pound—Exporters Caution As They Lost Money Last Year.

With the approach of Thanksgiving day the conditions for the turkey market are becoming a live topic in Kingston...

Of late years there has been a very noticeable change in the climate of this part of Canada, and the springs of each year have been anything but ideal turkey weather.

The English demand is not so great as that of last year, however, and this fact may have a downward tendency on turkey prices within the next few days.

But as the export trade is not brisk, and as the turkey crop is large, there are an evidence everywhere, and chickens are more plentiful than ever before.

On the market Saturday morning what turkey prices were had, sold at a price of ten to twelve cents a pound.

COLLEGIATE DEFEATED PARK NINE AT RUGBY.

The Score Was 38 To 0—Varsity Did Not Bring Down An Excursion—Rugby Executive To Arrange For Possible Tie Between Queen's and McGill.

The Kingston Collegiate Institute football team added another to their string of victories for this season by defeating the Park Nine team at the cricket field yesterday afternoon.

Varsity Have No Hope. "Varsity did not bring an excursion from Toronto as they have previously done. They imagined that by counting their being out of the championship running, people would not care to come down here, but forgot that in Toronto there is a regular colony of Kingston people who take advantage of every excursion to visit their native city.

To Arrange For Tie. The intercollegiate rugby executive will meet this evening to arrange for playing of the tie between Queen's and McGill, should one occur, and there is every reason to believe that the tie will be played on Saturday.
