ASSAULTS ON THE POLICE.

Offensive remarks have been mad sout the police in the Riley case. It as been insinuated that the departent did not show the activity which he circumstances called for. The warant for the young man's arrest was ot executed with the expedition which some people described. The onus does not rest with the police. They were eem to have consulted Chief Baillie in all respects and in all details. It was the Dominion comoner of police, Moreover, this arby the Dominion authorities to probe the West Hastings charge.

The charge is one reflecting upon a Dominion liberal candidate. Neverther has been quick to put the law in motion to bring out the truth, whatever t may be.

We congratulate the Dominion government and all liberals who are honest men and wish to promote cleanliness in politics, upon the prompt movement of the law in regard to the West Hastings case. We are not prejudging the case. No responsibility may attach regarding it to any but a limited number of rascals out for what they can make in politics out of any man or party. What we are pointing out is that the dominion authorities responsible for the administration of justice have taken prompt and decisive action to get 'at the truth, regardless apparently of whom the truth may hit, liberals or otherwise.
