FIRE SHIPS, Japanese Shell Russian Fleet in Harbor.

203 METRE HILL USED BY JAPANESE AS A FIRING BASE.

Russians Still Attempt Recapture Of This Eminence—Reported Heavy Repulses Of Japanese Attacking Forces—Left Many Dead.

Special to the Whig. Tokio, Dec. 6.—The Japanese forces besieging Port Arthur, have mounted naval and siege guns on 203 Metre Hill, the eminence south of the town, which was captured, last Wednesday night.

A Heavy Repulse. Mukden, Dec. 6.—There is a persistent and circumstantial rumor that the force that the Japanese sent to turn Reuenkampff's flank has been repulsed with great loss.

Evidently Important Move. Tokio, Dec. 6.—Evidently an important movement is developing on the Samtchi road. The Russian movements at Sankiatun, sixty miles east of Liao Yang, apparently indicate an extensive effort to cut Gen. Karok's communications.

A Withering Volley. Mukden, Dec. 6.—In the night of December 2nd the Japanese began a heavy artillery fire on Poutifil (Lone Tree Hill) paving the way for the infantry.

Ships Burned. Tokio, Dec. 6.—It is reported that the Japanese bombardment of the fleet at Port Arthur is proceeding to the satisfaction of the attacking forces.

To Retake It. Tokio, Dec. 6.—The Russians are nightly attacking 203 Metre Hill in a determined endeavor to retake the summit of the ground in contention.

Assassins Sent To Prison. St. Petersburg, Dec. 6.—Kadloff, Klausoff and Alexoff, the assassins of Gen. Strandaun's wife, who with a valet was murdered and robbed April last, in the Strandaun residence, adjoining the winter palace, were sentenced, Kadloff to life imprisonment, and the others to twenty years, each.

WEDDED IN NEW YORK. A Bright American Bride For French Count.

MISS EDITH CLAPP. Special to the Whig. New York, Dec. 6.—St. Francis Xavier's church, in West Sixteenth street, was the scene of a spectacular wedding this afternoon, when Miss Edith Clapp, daughter of Mrs. N. Devereux Clapp, was married to Count Raoul de Verreux, of Rougemont, of Paris.

The ceremony was performed by Archbishop Farley with all the pomp and circumstance of the Roman ritual. The two bridesmaids were Miss Adelaide Spoford and Miss des Portes, a cousin of the bridegroom, and M. des Portes, an attorney of French descent at Washington, acted as best man.

The elder Verreux was nearly crazed by his awful mistake and died. He summoned help from a far-away house, and his dead son and the wounded young man were taken back to Arden.

Parks was brought to Kingston on the N. & P. train Monday afternoon, and taken to the general hospital. The bullet had broken a piece of rib in his side, but otherwise had done little damage.

A GOOD STORY. If It Were Only Laced, Or Long Enough. Special to the Whig. St. Petersburg, Dec. 8.—An official statement comes from headquarters, giving Vice-Admiral Rozhkovsky's account of the "Dogger Bank" affair, and explaining how the second Pacific fleet fired on its own ships.

DETROIT HOCKEY CLUB. Will Contain Many Canadian Crack Players. Special to the Whig. Detroit, Mich., Dec. 6.—If enthusiasm counts for anything, Detroit hockey team, recently organized, should be a success.

Hamilton, Dec. 6.—The Hamilton Jockey Club held its annual meeting last night, at which it was decided that the spring meeting, next year, should immediately follow the O. J. C. meeting. Major William Hendrie was elected president of the club.

KILLED SON. Awful Deed of Henry Vanness, Arden.

PURE ACCIDENT. THREE MEN WERE OUT DEER HUNTING. The Father Fired And The Bullet Went Through Side of James Parks—It Then Entered The Son's Breast, Killing Him.

A shooting tragedy occurred near Cloves on Monday. Through a misdirected shot of a father, a son lies dead at Arden, and another young man lies wounded in the Kingston general hospital. It seems that Henry Vanness, a farmer living about six miles back of Arden, his eighty-year-old son, Archibald, and James Parks, twenty-five years of age, were out deer hunting, and had proceeded through the woods for Cloves.

The elder Vanness was nearly crazed by his awful mistake and died. He summoned help from a far-away house, and his dead son and the wounded young man were taken back to Arden.

Parks was brought to Kingston on the N. & P. train Monday afternoon, and taken to the general hospital. The bullet had broken a piece of rib in his side, but otherwise had done little damage.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. Delivered To Congress To-day — Many Subjects Touched.

Special to the Whig. Washington, Dec. 6.—The president's message was delivered to congress to-day. The following covers the principal points: "All encouragement should be given to the organization of labor so long as it is conducted with due regard for the rights of others; where the present laws relative to corporations prove inadequate, others should be enacted to supplement them; improvement in the consular service is suggested; the question of retirement of greenbacks, and the problem of securing such elasticity in currency as is consistent with safety, are recommended for consideration; unworthy types of immigrants should be barred; bars to quick criminal prosecution, so far as the federal courts are concerned, should be removed; provision for an adequate army and navy is urged.

JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION. Into Montreal Police Scandal Continued To-day. Special to the Whig. Montreal, Dec. 6.—The judicial investigation into the police department was continued to-day, before Judge Tachereau, and the city's case, so far as Chief Legault was concerned, was closed. The feature of the morning proceedings was the presence of a convict named Jumaan, from St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary, who was formerly a post-office clerk. He confessed, in some particulars, the evidence of Marie Desjardins against Legault, but not completely so.

DOMINION COAL COMPANY. Will Appeal From the Admiralty Court's Decision. Special to the Whig. Montreal, Dec. 6.—The Dominion Coal company announces its intention of appealing from the decision of the vice-admiralty court at Quebec, when as the outcome of the steamship Canada-Cape Breton case, both companies were ordered to pay half of the costs of the damage to the other steamships. The burden of this decision was heavily against the coal company.

ATHENIAN'S NON-ARRIVAL. At Yokohama Causes No Uneasiness. Special to the Whig. Montreal, Dec. 6.—The non-arrival of the SS. Athenian, at Yokohama, from Hong Kong, on Saturday, when she was due, is not creating any alarm among the officials of the company in this city. It was stated at the company's steamship department that it was not unusual to have delays at this time of year on account of storms.

Gromov's Sunk. Tokio, Dec. 7.—There is said to be no doubt that the Russian battleship Gromov has been sunk off Vladivostok. After the injuries she received in the action with Admiral Kamimura's squadron had been repaired, she went, on November 14th, on a trial trip off Vladivostok harbor and struck a rock. It was reported at the time that she was so badly injured that she was kept aloft only by attaching her to a number of lighters. Now it would seem that she sank.

Mr. Delaney Defeated. Quebec, Dec. 6.—Hon. Mr. Parent received a message that as a result of the election on the Magdalen islands, held on Saturday last for the local legislature, P. P. Delaney, the late member, was defeated by R. J. Lesperance, a resident of Halifax, but well known on the islands, being interested in the shipping business and lobster industry.

Death Due To Shock. London, Ont., Dec. 6.—Five months ago Miss Beesie Howie, book-keeper with Bedouins and Brown, brushed aside a wire, which was hanging over her desk. In doing so she was severely shocked, her finger being burned by the electricity. Shortly afterwards she was taken ill, and did not recover, dying Monday, it is supposed, as a result of the shock.

Taken Action. Montreal, Dec. 6.—David Russell stated last evening: "Hon. Andrew G. Blair and myself have instructed our lawyers to at once commence criminal proceedings against the Montreal Herald, the only responsible journal which has copied the malicious attacks upon us."

Covered Rink. The rink office will be opened on Dec. 14th, for the sale of season tickets and lockers. Skating on Saturday, Dec. 10th. Weather and ice permitting. A season ticket will be the best Christmas present that you can get for your boy or girl.
