GUILTY" AND "ZEDUCED IN RANK" THE VERDICT

Against Capt. Hall and His Men in the Riot Case-Finding by Police Poard Caused Surprise Special Correspondence to British Whig-Boston, Mass., Dec. 30.—"Guilty" was the verdict and "reduced in rank" was the punishment of Capt. George A. Hall and his men charged with excessive force and brutality i November 2nd. Capt. Hall has been reduced in rank to lieutenant. Sergeants Richard Fitzgerald, Hayden J. Ringer and James E. Sanford reduced to patrolmen. The above change was effective at once and the above ex-sergeants were doing patrol duty on the streets last night. Sergts. William J. Sheehan, Frank Amold, Ernest R. Taylor, Thomas Goode, Jr., each fined thirty days' pay. Sergts. Daniel F. Egan and George H. Guard found "not guilty." The conduct of the students also is blamed. There were no patrolmen punished because no individual evidence could be secured but the board stated if any patrolmen had been individually found patrolmen had been individually found guilty of brutality they would have punishment meted out to them in a ike manner. The verdict as returned from the police board last evening

"We find that excessive force was used and that the police in performing their duty did not use that prudent and careful forbearance, intelligence, tact and coolness which should be required of a well-disciplined and highly efficient police force, accustomed to handle crowds and processions.
