Special to the Whig.

London, Jan. 12.—The Port Louis

Mauritius correspondent of the Daily

Mail says that Vice-Admiral Volker-sham, commanding a division of the Russian Baltic fleet, informed the commander of the steamer Oxus that he expected to be attacked in the Indian Ocean by the Japanese. He asked for a chart of the harbor of Diego

Suarez, Madagascari, to be had by midnight. The Baltic fleet could not reach the Seychelle Islands. It was reported that the tugboat Russ, which took provisions to Tamatave, Madagascar, on January 4th, has a double crew of Russians and Germans. The vessel is sometimes Russian and sometimes German, according as it deems necessary; the sailors of the other nationality posing as passengers.

Getting Ready for Sea.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 12.—The admiralty has not given the slightest official confirmation of the report of the recall of Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron. On the contrary, the officials point calmly to the preparations being made to reinforce the squadron with a division of the third Pacific

Squadron, as sufficient evidence that Rojestvensky will not return to European waters. The Russian ice-breaker, Ermak, at Libau has been ordered to keep the channel clear for the ships which are being made ready for sea.

Regiment's Departure Postponed.

London, Jan. 12.—A despatch from the Daily Mail, from Odessa, says that the departure of a regiment from that city for the far east, which had been fixed for January 18th, has been postponed until February 12th, much to the consternation of his officers. When the colonel informed his officers of the postponement, he said he did not know whether they would be active service after all.

Nagasaki's Heartly Welcome.

Tokio, Jan. 12.—All the prisoners from Port Arthur, arriving at Nagasaki, look well fed and happy. Col.

Holjakooff, of the Russian army, said the enemy's welcome was entirely unexpected and made him sick as though he had returned to his own country.

He hoped the war would cease soon and a mutual understanding follow.

Twenty-six paroled Russian officers were welcomed by M. Arakawa, governor of Nagasaki, municipal delegates, and leading citizens.

Col. Trichadoff expressed thanks on behalf of his comrades and said he believed that the war was over.

Commander Tamash, of Japanese

navy, who is investigating the sunken

Russian warships at Port Arthur, has discovered that the cruisers Difidit, Rasboynik, and Zabina which hitherto had been unaccounted for, were all sunk by the Russians.
