CHALLENGE AND FAILURE. Samuel Price, of St. Thomas, has received what so many lawyers desire at election times, an advertisement. He has answered Mr. Ross' challenge and undertaken to show that some the officers of the government have ever been guilty of wrong-doing is connection with the elections.

Mr. Price cites the North Waterlos ase in which John H. Wildfong and Harry Cummings were reported by the ballots and the other for miscounting them. But that case was subseque ly brought to trial, and one witness berta to give evidence. The prosecution of Wildfong failed, and the case against Cummings, being the weaker, was dropped by the county attorney, prove of it all? Does he know where
