Pain Across the Kidneys For Three Years. Suffered Great Agony. Could Not Stoop or Bend. No disease is so quiet and stealthy in its approach as kidney disease. That is why it is so dangerous. It may become deep-seated before you realize the danger. It is therefore of great importance to recognize the early warning symptoms, because in its early stage kidney disease is easily curable. Pain or dull ache in the back is one of the first signs. So are bladder pains, bearing-down pains, smarting sensation when urinating, frequent or suppressed urination, and gravel or sediment in the urine, etc. You cannot be well if your kidneys are not performing their functions properly. In all ordinary cases of any derangement of the kidneys, a few doses of DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS will put the patient right; in old or chronic cases, the treatment should be persisted in. Mr. Michael A. McInnis, Woodbine, Ontario, writes: "I consulted and had several doctors treat me, but I got none the better. On the advice of a friend I procured a box of that valuable life-giving remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, and to my surprise and benefit I immediately became better. In my opinion Doan's Kidney Pills have no equal as a cure for any form of kidney ailment. Price 50 cents per box, or $1.25. All dealers, or direct by mail. THE DOAN KIDNEY PILL CO., TORONTO, ONT.

VICTORY FOR PENSE! That Was the Watchword at the Liberal Rally Last Night--The Stalwarts Confident of Winning To-morrow's Battle--Liberal Victory in Province, Too. If there was any doubt in the minds of sane people over the result of to-morrow's election in Kingston it was completely dispelled at the grand liberal rally in the Grand Opera House, where a great audience gathered last night. There was but one note, and that was that Pense would win. The stalwarts of the liberal party were confident and cocky. With another hard day's work, another liberal victory in Kingston would be recorded, they declared. The successful liberal constituencies would be Kingston. (Loud Applause). Premier Ross' Message. President Mowat read the following message from Premier Ross, who sent the liberals this valuable word of advice: "Impress on your committees in every polling subdivision, to bring out a full liberal vote. If this is done, we will have a substantial majority all over the province." (Loud applause greeted the premier's message).

H. H. Dewart, Toronto. H. H. Dewart, K.C., Toronto, was given a hearty reception. He said he brought glad tidings from the west and the north. Everywhere the liberals were strong of heart and full of courage, and with the old fighting spirit in them. They would gain a number of western seats (Applause). The speaker said he came as a representative of Hon. G. W. Ross, whose message to him when he left Toronto was: "I expect Kingston to be in the line of my victories on Wednesday." (Loud applause). While the liberals went to the press prepared to discuss questions of importance to the province, they met the opposition with only the cry of corruption. The only disgruntled liberals were those who did not get what they wanted, and the few of such were not opposing their party on the ground of corruption. Referring to coalition, Mr. Dewart asked that if Mr. Whitney received an offer, why did he decline to co-operate with the men who were endeavoring to do what they could for the moral welfare of the province. By his rejection of the proposal, if he got it, he had shown himself to be estranged with the government of this province. Does the record of Mr. Whitney's party entitle it to pose as the leader of the Kingston liberals? In 1867, corruption had been rampant in the conservative ranks and in its government. Before they stretch their hands to the liberals, let them look after their own side. The liberal leaders are charged with a knowledge of all kinds of corruption, but not a charge had been proven nor could be. Mr. Dewart said his compliments to Rev. Mr. Ross, who was a disappointed office-seeker, and the other a Tory all his life, and whose talks on moral reform had not the ring of sincerity about them. The speaker referred to the three incidents which the conservatives were harrying against the liberals—viz. the Bign case, the Gannex case, and the trial of the witness. He said the correct version of these affairs which are so distorted by oppositionists. Mr. Dewart declared that the slanderous charges of Mr. Whitney's followers would recede with double force on their own heads on Wednesday. (Applause).

Tories On The Run. Upon the platform of November 23rd, the liberal party stood, and no candidate of the other party was heard from it. It was a platform on which all could stand shoulder to shoulder. The liberals had a strong body of supporters. Mr. Pense was one of the best types. The speaker referred to the utterances of Chancellor Burwash of Victoria University, and Rev. Mr. McQuig of Wellesley Street, and George W. Ross, as opposed to the allyship of Mr. Whitney. He spoke of the bribery by a conservative in South Ontario only last Saturday. The liberals are going to vote in the province in that constituency, and if the oppositionists were watched in Kingston, they would also be put to rout. (Loud Applause). The people all over the province were going to vote in the province in that constituency, and if the oppositionists were watched in Kingston, they would also be put to rout. (Loud Applause). Mr. Dewart reviewed the wise legislation by the Ross government. He said that what looked well after the interests of the workmen, Mr. Pense had supported the government in these measures for the workmen's interest. He said that he was criticizing Mr. Pense to the legislature as one fully in sympathy with the workmen than to send one whose leader had always opposed measures in their interest. He said for instance the establishment of a department of labor and colonization. (Applause). Dealing with the bogus ballot box case, Mr. Dewart showed how both the liberal governments at Ottawa and Toronto, had acted, resulting in the banishment of Shibley and Lott from their native land. The Tories, in their eagerness to hurt Premier Ross, had tried to fasten the guilt upon the Ontario government, and had failed utterly. Why did they not try to fasten it on the government at Ottawa, which would have benefited? Simply because there was to be an election in Ontario, and they wanted another contemptible cry. (Applause). Mr. Dewart charged that Mr. Whitney was going to be premier of Ontario because of the reckless statements he had made in this campaign. One of those statements he had to take back and promise never to use it again. He was like the Irish calumny, who on being asked where he was going replied: "Faith and I don't know, but I'm going to be just the same. Way back the man the people of Ontario would entrust with the premiership of their province? (Cries of No, No, No!). The reason Mr. Whitney was holding a meeting in Kingston to-night was because he expected Mr. Ross the night previous, and cowardlike he was left looking him at a distance. (Applause). In conclusion, Mr. Dewart said that the Ross government was leading the province safely on, and urged the people not to worry, for with the Hon. George W. Ross at the helm, they would be safely led through all dangers. (Loud applause). C. F. Gilderleeve Speaks. C. F. Gilderleeve made a brief, but enthusiastic speech. He said he was not so pleased to be in the liberal ranks as now. When the conservative became convinced that the liberal party had been the chief cause of moral and material reform and prosperity. He believed the liberal party would be successful on Wednesday. (Cheers). The evidence everywhere pointed to that, and it also pointed to the election of Mr. Pense in Kingston. Mr. Gilderleeve said he was on the liberal committee in charge of the Fortmouth voting, and predicted a majority for Mr. Pense of from forty to sixty. (Applause). The speaker was glad to support such a leader as Hon. George W. Ross. The prospects for the liberals were bright and it would be a great mistake by the people of Ontario to change premiers. (Applause).

Smite The Slanderers. Dr. Richardson declared that the corruption cry of the conservatives was a baseless contempt. He was like the "old darky," who when he heard his neighbor had got religion, wanted to lock up his chickens. (Loud applause). When the applause had about subsided, a few lines were heard, one being from a conservative lawyer in the rear. Dr. Richardson's retort was quick. He said: "That sound reminds me of the Bible story about the day of Pentecost, when every man spoke in his own tongue." A thunder of cheers followed this retort. Dr. Richardson claimed that the opposition, and not the government, was on trial. The opposition had done nothing for the province. Mr. Whitney had shown himself as no friend to the workmen of the province. He had served long and nobly, and it was the depth of meanness and ingratitude for any man to hurl at him the contemptible abuse of Mr. Whitney and his chief followers. This campaign on the conservative side was simply one of abuse, and Dr. Richardson asked that the people smite it on Wednesday with one good and heavy blow. In conclusion he predicted a grand liberal victory. Full of Confidence. R. F. Elliott, the fighter in many local campaigns, declared himself as perfectly satisfied that Kingston would again elect Mr. Pense. The people were more interested in the future than in the past, for the past had gone. He had absolutely nothing to give the people of Ontario. Mr. George W. Ross had stood well by Kingston, and Kingston would again stand by him. (Applause). The liberals of Kingston had defeated Mr. McQuig twice before, and they were going to do it again on Wednesday. (Loud applause). Never before was the party so united, and never before were they prepared to man the polls. (Applause). Hon. Mr. Hartly Confident. Hon. Mr. Hartly was loudly applauded when he arose to speak. He declared that Premier Ross was Canada's ablest speaker and statesman. There was no truer or more honest Canadian living. (Applause). For thirteen years the liberals had held the city of Kingston, and they could repeat on Wednesday the victories of the past. Let them stand together as they had for him on November 23rd, and Mr. Pense would be landed in office. He was sure the liberals would win on Wednesday, and asked them to make Mr. Pense's majority large.

Mr. Hartly defied the Tories to put their finger on one item in the whole thirty-two years of liberal rule where one cent had been mis-spent. Dr. Ryan on nomination day had held the government responsible for the defalcation of $25,000 by Mr. McDougall. In reply to that Mr. Hartly stated that Dr. Ryan was a trustee of the government of Kingston. One of its members, Mr. Ryan, was responsible for the defalcation of $30,000 by the late C.M.B.A. treasurer, named Brown, of London? The two cases were parallel, and if Dr. Ryan held the Ontario government responsible for his mismanagement, he must be responsible for the other. But the speaker held neither responsible. Mr. Hartly referred to the News and Times charge that he was making an effort to get the Catholic vote for Mr. Pense. He wanted to say that the conservative newspaper had no business dragging the Catholics into such a discussion. The Catholics were intelligent enough to know how to vote without being told. (Loud applause). In conclusion, Mr. Hartly said that all the liberals had to do on Wednesday was to stand together. With one hard day's work they would elect Mr. Pense. (Applause). The enthusiastic meeting concluded with cheers for Mr. Pense, Ross and the king. The band played the national anthem.

GRIP'S GREATEST FOE. A Scientific Method of Mastering The Grip—Make a Memo. Make a memo of the fact that there is only one safe and certain way to deal with Mr. Grip. Soak him. Do it with Stuart's Catharrh Tablets. You say: "What has Catharrh to do with Grip?" Grip is Catharrh, nothing else. Catharrh attacks in numberless different forms. One of its worst forms is Grip. Grip's greatest foe is Stuart's Catharrh Tablets, because Stuart's Catharrh Tablets can be relied upon to do the greatest damage of any remedy or medicine you can take. They are much superior to quinine or any of the old unscientific methods of dealing with the disease, because quinine is quackery, and Stuart's Catharrh Tablets are a pure and simple combination of germicidal and tonic ingredients, which have a positive specific effect upon every form of Catharrh inflammation in the body—including Grip. Grip is a fearful disease. Not so much, in its own particular symptoms, though these are bad enough, but because of the fact that the after-effects are so lingering and dangerous. Grip pulls you down, so you feel weak and miserable for months. The only tonic that will build you up is Stuart's Catharrh Tablets. Grip weakens the heart, kidneys and lungs. Thousands of deaths from Heart Disease, Bright's Disease, Pneumonia, Consumption, are directly due to the weakening results of the Grip. The only medicine that will prevent the Grip from developing into these direful diseases is Stuart's Catharrh Tablets. Better take them. Stuart's Catharrh Tablets succeed in curing, and in preventing the Grip, on any after-effects of the Grip, for one great and sufficient reason. They are not a general tonic remedy. They are a scientific specific for just this one form of disease, Catharrh inflammation of the mucous membrane. They are a curative, not a palliative. Beware of the deadly grip of the Grip. Fight it off with Stuart's Catharrh Tablets. Sold at all druggists at 50 cents a box.
