INSULTING THE WORKINGMEN. When, two or three sessions ago o the legislature, it was proposed amend the registration act, making it more workable and less discriminative, The Mail and Empire fell on the go vernment and referred to the law one calculated "to promote trimes Dr. Barr, a leading supporter of Mr. Whitney, and, speaking no doubt wir his concurrence, alleged that had to be taken with regard to

ASHAMED OF THE PARTY. "Don," in Saturday Night, has been quoted as unfavourable to the libera government. Mr. Sheppard is a co servative, and has contested one ng in the conservative interest, successfully. So that he cannot expected to say much in support the liberal party in Ontario. At same time he has been equal to the castigation of the conservative party, and says this of Gamey and his present associates :

"That any man should sup with him (Gamey), or prominent politicions put their arms about him, is se credible that I could not have be lieved it had not reports of this sor! of thing appeared uncontradicted the general press."

It will be remembered that after th exhibition which Mr. Gamey made himself, especially after his flight to Buffalo while the judicial enquiry was in progress, the conservative opposition in the legislature fought shy of him. Mr. Whitney was clearly trying to avoid him. So were other members of the house, But Dr. Beattie Nesbitt had adopted Gamey into the politicial family, and in time he to be received.

Mr. Sheppard may be ashamed of the party, and may not be inclined to forgive it for its truckling tondencies, but it cannot abandon Gamey. Dr. Nesbitt has put the stamp of approval upon him, and declared "He's CAMPAIGN LIES.

Here is another campaign lie. I appears in the conservative press : E. W. Rathbun, who was nominated as the reform candidate, has not during the campaign announced his policy or which party he is prepared to follow. In the federal election Mr. Harty had to meet the religious cry, and had to ask his liberal supporters to give it a final and effectual quietus. His election by over five hundred majority ought to have silenced the sectaries at once and forever.

It has been the desire of the conservative party to revive it, however, and for a purpose which is not apparent. At the public meeting some days ago the president of the conservative association referred to Capt. Gaskin and Mr. Foy as members of the same lodge, the reference being instrumental only in recalling the fact that in the itles having failed, the plan was t Mr, Harty was closed out, under show that Protestant and Catholic ion is such that the government is the agreement, from replying at the were united, and that they would be
