He also visited his aged relative, Joseph Stoddart, who is in his 107th year, and is probably the oldest man in Ontario. This remarkable aged resident fived in Lanark township, near Lanark village, for over eighty years. He was born in the county Cavan, Ireland, in 1798, and came to Canada with his parents in 1819. He was one of the soldiers who went with the militia to the battle of the Windmill at Prescott in 1837. He had two brothers and several sisters; only one brother still lives, John Stoddart, Paisley, who is over ninety years o age and is still quite smart. He was married when he was about seventy years of age to a Miss McLellan, of Lanark, who died about ten years ago. About five years ago he went to
