POLICY

A Policy is like a principle; it costs something to stick to it.

We're taking stock this week. On the second floor found a rack full of good LADIES' and CHILDREN'S COATS that should have been sold a month ago. We might sell them to better advantage next season than right now, but that would be in opposition to our policy. Our policy is to carry no goods over from one season to another, and in consequence these Coats must be sold AT UNCE.

All are new; nearly every size in the lct; materials are Beavers, Zibelines, Cheviots, Kersey, and fashionable mix ures, former price
