A LADY AT REST

SHE PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY IN NAPANEE.

Was the Mother of the U.S. Minister to Cuba—The Remains of the Late Lendrick Saul Have Reached Napanee, Napanee, Feb. 13.—Our citizens were indeed shocked on Saturday afternoon, on learning that Mrs. E. J. Squires, sister of Mrs. (Rev. G. S. Squire), died at her sister's home in Pietry Hill, after a few days' illness and not considered dangerous at that time. She was greatly distressed over Mr. White's illness a few days ago and to consult him with what appeared to be tonsilitis, but notwithstanding that medical aid was rendered in time, she gradually weakened, and on Saturday passed to that bourne from whence no traveller returns. Mrs. Squires is a daughter of Rev. D. Brown, well known to old residents of Odessa, year ago. Mr. R. Metzler, Odessa, is a sister, and Mrs. (Rev. G. S. Squire), died at their home in Norwich, Conn., where her daughters now reside.

The remains of the late Lendrick Saul, who died at Sackets Harbor, April 26, 1877, were interred in the cemetery of the Methodist church in Napanee, where his wife and two sons, Mrs. (Rev. G. S. Squire) and Mrs. (Rev. G. S. Squire), now reside.

JOEL BENEDICT, Pastor of a church in Norwich, Conn.

This is how Mrs. Tuckington's grandfather celebrated Christmas Day many generations ago in the little New England town. A few years ago he had a son born in the same house, where his daughters now reside.

The sorrowing sisters are relatives, descendants from very many friends in their dear bereavement.
