Hockey At Portsmouth.

The first of a series of five matches for the championship of Portsmouth between the Wolves and Pirate hocby teams took place Tuesday night at ockwood rink, resulting in a victory for the former, by a store of 15 to 5. It is not likely a protest will be entered, notwithstanding that the captain of the Wolves objected, at the beginng of the game to the Pirates' playing "Teddy' Kelso in goal on the ground that he was overweight and "Tommy" Campbell the left wing on account of him being a professional. The Wolves at the end of the match being entirely satisfied with the result allowed the objections to drop.
