MOBS RULE.

Awful Scenes in Trans-Caucasia.

MANY MURDERS

FAMILIES DEAGED FROM HOMES AND SLAIN.

Tifs, Baku, Batoum and Pafi Are All in the Hands of Mobs

The Mussulmans Help to Attack the Christians—Disorder From Strikes.

Special to the Whig. Feb. 24.—It is reported that Tifs, capital of Russia in Trans-Caucasia, is the centre of a riot, and that the fighting is incessant. Hundreds have been killed or wounded. In Baku many terrible murders have been committed. Manu Admoff, of the Naphtha Refining works, together with his wife and child, were burned to death. A beggar, named Taksuff and a harrat owner, named Lajoff, and the latter's family, have been murdered.

The other casualties are unknown, but it is generally thought they were not below a thousand. Whole families were dragged from their homes and murdered in the streets. It is reported from Constantinople that Batoum and Poti in Trans-Caucasia are under mob rule. The officials are helpless. Murders and arson are frequent. It is rumoured that archbishops, belonging to the Russian Rite, have been murdered. The Russian Rite archbishop, who is held by the mob, is an English merchant who has just arrived at Batoum, where his life was threatened. The archbishop is a number about 40,000. The steamship lines from Constantinople to Batoum have suspended service. The tie-up of the railways running from Moscow to the Caucasus region of the situation, in the Caucasus region of the authorities appear for the moment to have regained the upper hand, but it is feared that the Russian Rite archbishop, who is held by the mob, is an English merchant who has just arrived at Batoum, where his life was threatened.
