Bank Burned Down.

Special to the Whig.

Regina, N.W.T., Feb. 27.—The Bank of Montreal, undoubtedly the finest building in Regina, was totally destroyed by fire, yesterday morning. Grim and blackened walls and a mass of unsightly debris remain to mark the spot where the structure stood. The building was valued at about $50,000.

THE ARRIVAL

Of Stoessel In St. Petersburg Rouses Critics.

PORT ARTHUR

WAS NOT IN EXTREMITIES WHEN HE CAPITULATED.

Public Ovation to Him Countermanded on Account of Death of Sergius—Notes From the Seat of War.

Special to the Whig.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—On the eve of General Stoessel's arrival here a section of the press is attacking him bitterly. These papers have printed all the stories tending to show that the garrison of Port Arthur was not at extremities when it capitulated. The Slovo even alleging mistreatment of the inhabitants of the city. The majority of the papers, however, resent criticism in advance of the official investigation as being unjust and unwarranted, denouncing it as shameful and comparing it to the persecution of Marshall Bazaine following the surrender of Metz. On account of the death of Grand Duke Sergius all the plans for a big public ovation for Gen. Stoessel have been countermanded, and the man who a few weeks ago was extolled as the hero of the war returns to the Russian capital to-night almost like a soldier in disgrace.

Over Their Own Dead.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Gen. Sakharoff (Gen. Kuropatkin's chief of staff) reports that when the Japanese attacked and captured Beresneff Hill, February 24th, after severe fighting, they were in superior force and advanced literally over the bodies of their own men. The Japanese loss was very heavy, the dead lying in heaps. The Russian losses have not yet been ascertained.

Anxious To Avoid Fight.

Newchwang, Feb. 27.—Scouts report that the Russian raiders originally started from Suffangtai and consisted of four squadrons of Cossacks commanded by a colonel. They lost one officer and a number of men in the engagement at Hunghutzu. The Russians seemed to be disheartened and anxious to avoid a fight.

Abandon A Town.

Tokio, Feb. 27.—The Russians shelled Litajentun and Chenchiehpao, on Friday. On the same day they burned and abandoned Chiensunmupaotzu, near Waitaom Mountain. Collisions between scouts and reconnoitering parties continue.

Fight In Snowstorm.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—A despatch from Sachetan, Manchuria, dated yesterday, says that fighting is going on the Russian left. The Japanese advanced in two strong columns. The eastern column, marching towards Singolin Pass, turned the left flank of the Russians, at Tsin Khetchen, compelling the latter to retire. The western column advanced from the north, on Iantazan, and is trying to turn the Russians defending Goutoulin Pass. The fighting is desperate, notwithstanding a heavy snow storm. The Russians north of Iantazan repulsed the enemy last evening. The advantage, thus far, is on the side of the Japanese, though at heavy cost. The scene of the operations is fifty miles south-east of Mukden, beyond Da Pass, an important defile commanding the road to Fusan. Both armies occupy apparently impregnable positions on the centres. Gen. Kuropatkin evidently planned to inaugurate widely sweeping operations on both flanks, but the Japanese countered hard.

Gen. Nogi In Command.

London, Feb. 27.—An unofficial despatch from the Russian headquarters, dated yesterday, says that the fighting continues in front and west of Tieling. On the extreme east the Japanese have taken the outlying Russian positions, and now threaten the main defences. It is presumed, on account of the fierceness of the attack, that Gen. Nogi, with the artillery from Port Arthur, commands this force. Forty wounded arrived at Mukden yesterday, and four hundred are expected to-day. Other indications point to an unusual struggle being in progress. A blustering snow storm raged all day, and ended in a bitter wind. This change in the weather may modify the nature of the conflict.

No Russians On Sha.

Tokio, Feb. 27.—Press despatches from the front state that, on Thursday, the Russians opposite the Japanese right, abandoned their positions south of the Sha river. On Friday night the Japanese advanced in two detachments under cover of darkness, and occupied an important line on the heights, inflicting considerable losses on the enemy. The Japanese lost twelve wounded. It is stated that no Russians now remain on the left bank of the Sha river.

Many Were Killed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Gen. Kuropatkin, has telegraphed to the emperor, under date of February 25th, as follows: "At five o'clock, this morning, the enemy occupied Tsin Khetchen. Exact reports of our yesterday's losses have not yet been received. There are twelve officers and about 300 men wounded in hospital at Santuyn. The percentage of killed is very large." He instances many cases of close fighting and bayonet charges, and concludes: "This morning a battalion of the enemy advanced in the direction of Papin pass, six miles south and west of Santunyu, and this evening the enemy's outposts commenced to approach the passes occupied by us."

ANTI JEWISH RIOTS.

Streets In Caucasian Towns Glutted With Dead.

Special to the Whig.

London, Feb. 27.—A despatch to a news agency, from Odessa, says it is reported there that ten Jews have been killed and thirty wounded in anti-Jewish riots at Odessa.

Under Martial Law.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—All the Russian railways, except the Central Asian, have been placed under martial law.

Advices from Batoum say the prefect of police and several leading merchants of that city have been assassinated and that numbers of Ottoman subjects have been murdered by Georgian strikers. Revolutionary manifestoes in favor of a republic are being circulated broadcast at Batoum.

Private vengeances have glutted the streets of Baku, Batoum, and Tiflis, with dead Armenians and Mussulmans.

Street sales of the Russ have been suspended on account of an article in its issue of Friday reciting conditions in Russia and asking whether they indicate the existence of a government.

A Popular Prince.

Moscow, Feb. 27.—The employees of the municipal council are threatening to strike in order to show their sympathy with Prince Galatzin, prefect of Moscow, whom the imperial government has censored for having sanctioned resolutions adopted by the municipal council and provincial Zemstvo, demanding liberal constitutional reforms. The employees regard the prince as their special advocate. If the strike occurs it will be the first purely political strike.

Huge Cotton Combine.

Special to the Whig.

London, Feb. 27.—Industrial combines in England are not so numerous as in America and as a consequence the amalgamation of the Master Cotton Spinners' Federation with the Bolton Cotton Spinners' Association, which has just been consummated, is attracting great attention. The merger, however, is large enough to attract notice even in the United States. In fact, it is declared to be the biggest combine of its kind in the world. Although already controlling nearly 50,000,000 spindles, it will shortly be materially strengthened by the addition of nearly 4,000,000 spindles, many new mills being now in course of erection. The aggregate capital of the firms included in the combine is not far short of $150,000,000, and in some quarters it is estimated that the total approaches close to $200,000,000.

THE MOUJIKS

Want To Share The Land They Till.

ARE AROUSED

BY WILD TALES THAT "LITTLE FATHER" WILL AID.

Edict That Will Allot Them a Portion of the Soil Is Looked For on March 4th, and Arguments Fail to Make Them Disregard Their Dreams For the Cold Facts.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—The beginnings of a dangerous movement have been observed among the peasantry of some of the southern provinces, where revolutionary agitators are circulating reports that the emperor will on March 4th, issue a manifesto providing for a general division of lands.

A new allotment has been the dream of the Moujiks ever since emancipation, and, according to private reports, the stories have spread like wildfire and are implicitly believed.

In the government of Tula a large proprietor went to his estate last week and found the peasants at work measuring off and staking their shares.

In response to his demands for an explanation they told him of the coming manifesto.

Refusing to listen to his declaration that the report was absurd, they would only say "We have heard the 'Little Father' has decided."

When the proprietor asked what would become of him, they replied, "Oh, we will leave you the buildings and forty acres."

Once the peasantry becomes possessed of the idea that the emperor has willed a division of land, it will be exceedingly difficult to disabuse their minds, and agrarian troubles on a large scale are feared.

The Moujiks are likely to turn upon the proprietors as they did several years ago in the provinces of Baratoff and Poltava, when almost complete anarchy reigned for some time.

Among the reservists agitators are spreading the story that the war is over.

A case is cited which occurred a fortnight ago at Riazan, where 200 reservists who had been called in flatly told the officer they did not intend to serve.

"The war is over," said the leader. "We know you simply want to make money out of a contract for feeding us. We will not serve."

Off they marched. An instance also is given of reservists who actually left a railway train after they had been started for the front.

Private reports leave no room for doubt that the strikes in the whole region below Moscow are almost entirely political in character.

The situation generally in the south of Russia is becoming worse instead of better and contains many factors which are causing the authorities the greatest alarm.

The possibility of the necessity for the dispatch of additional troops to the Caucasus is already being considered.

Another factor that is causing grave concern is the actual difficulty of transporting enough supplies for feeding the army at the front.

These constantly increasing difficulties are strengthening the peace party.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

Passed To Rest At Amherstburg, Ont.

Special to the Whig.

Amherstburg, Ont., Feb. 27.—Simon Fraser, one of the most successful residents of Essex county, died, last night, at the age of seventy years. With his wife, deceased came to Canada in 1857, locating in Chatham, where he was for several years connected with the construction department of the Great Western railway. For five years he conducted business at Belle River, and in 1872 he came to Amherstburg and engaged in the lumber, grain, and coal business, from which he retired in 1890, being succeeded by his son, John Fraser. In 1895 he was mayor of the town and was also J.P. and license commissioner for many years. He leaves one son and two daughters.

Seeding Begun.

Special to the Whig.

Medicine Hat, N.W.T., Feb. 27.—Seeding already has commenced in the Medicine Hat district, a farmer, living within two miles of the town, having put forty acres of wheat in during last week. The temperature moderated gradually until on Saturday the maximum was forty-five and the minimum twenty-six. Many other farmers living further out also have made a start within the last day or two.

Killed At Hastings.

Special to the Whig.

Hastings, Ont., Feb. 27.—While adjusting a belt on the slush wheel in the tannery, about nine o'clock, this morning, Wesley Karnrike became tangled in the belt and was instantly killed. One arm was broken off at the elbow and both legs were severed. Mr. Karnrike was a married man, about fifty years of age, with a large family depending on his support. He came here from Havelock about two years ago.

Chicago Mayoralty.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Judge Edward F. Dunne, of the circuit court, was to-day unanimously nominated by the democratic city convention as candidate for mayor.

MANAGER OF MUKDEN BANK.

Ordered To Be Ready To Close If Necessary.

Special to the Whig.

London, Feb. 27.—A despatch to the Telegraph from Simmanting, says that the manager of the Russian Bank at Mukden has been told to be ready to close the bank. There is much anxiety in Mukden. Forty thousand Japanese are reported to be at Sakunnen, having marched there through the hills on the Mongolian border. Six thousand men with guns, passed between Simmingting and the Liao river Saturday. This indicates a movement west in co-operation with the eastward advance of the Japanese.

To Build Her Own Ships.

Tokio, Feb. 27.—The statement cabled to America from London, that Japan has ordered four battleships in London is incorrect. It is possible, that Japan, in future, will construct all her vessels at home. She has equipped extensive yards, shops and gun and armor foundries and there is a strong and growing sentiment in the navy and among the people generally in favor of home construction.

KOGORO TAKAHIVA.

No Chance Of Peace.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 27.—Japan, through her minister at Washington, Kogoro Takahira, has absolutely denied all reports that she was suing for peace or that any act of the mikado's representative here possibly can be so construed. The minister added that, "The peace talk of the last few days you can surely believe is not created in Japan, but emanates from some other land."

Japan, it was declared, has made all arrangements to continue the war for at least another year.

German Ships Seized.

Tokio, Feb. 27.—The German steamers Romulus and Severus, bound for Vladivostok with a cargo of Cardiff coal, were seized.

Very Cold Weather.

Tokio, Feb. 27.—The only announcement made, to-day, from the headquarters of the Japanese armies, in Manchuria, was a brief statement to the effect that the Russians continued a bombardment Saturday and Sunday, and that the weather is very cold and that it is snowing.

The statement that Japan has ordered four battleships in England is incorrect.

The German steamer Romulus bound for Vladivostok with a cargo of Cardiff coal was seized Saturday night.

Thanked For Address.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—The Moscow nobility has sent a resolution to czar, declaring it impossible for Russia to accept peace at the price of a heavy loss of lives and treasure, and the humiliation of the czar. The czar endorsed the address and has sent the following reply to the nobles: "I heartily thank the Moscow nobility for the feeling expressed. I am convinced they will always remain a firm stronghold of the throne, more especially in these difficult times for the country."

Bombarding Mukden.

New Chwang, Feb. 27.—(Via Tien-Tsin, Feb. 27)—According to a person who has just returned here from the front, the Japanese are shelling Mukden with eleven-inch mortars. The bombardment, which was recently commenced, is further reported to have caused great damage far behind the Russian lines.

Advices from Chinese sources say that a general engagement is in progress all along the line. The heaviest fighting is reported to be on the Japanese right and Gen. Kuroki is said to be sweeping far north, and threatening to cripple the Russians back on the railway. A special force is reported to be moving from the south and east with the intention of cutting off the Russian communication, by railway, with Vladivostok.

War Tidings.

Prince Frederick Leopold, of Prussia, who recently visited Emperor Nicholas at Tsarskoe-Selo, has started for the far east.

The third Russian Pacific squadron, commanded by Rear-Admiral Nebogatoff, passed Dover, England, heading westward.

It is assumed that the Japanese are aiming to occupy the town of Tieling or to cut the railways between that place and Mukden.

Gen. Kuropatkin's brief reference to the casualties at Beresneff hill leads to the expectation of a story later of a desperate and bloody struggle.

The force of Japanese, joined with Chinese brigands, west of Kunchialin, is still menacing the Russians in that region. The cannonade along the Russian centre diminished in intensity.

According to a Vladivostok despatch the entrance to that harbor is open, and the squadron, which is seaworthy, is taking no risks, but is saving its strength for co-operation with Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 27.—(10 a.m.)—Fair and moderately cold. Tuesday fair with a little higher temperature.
