THE STREET RAILWAY.

Passes Into the Hands of The Bondholders.

The street railway is about to pass into the hands of the bondholders who hold a mortgage amounting to about $200,000. As to the amount that the stockholders will lose, nothing definite can yet be said. The situation is simply this, in the words of one those interested: "Owing to the mixup with the city and the fact that the interest was not paid last January. the bondholders appointed a trustee, in the person of Dr. R. V. Rogers, K.C., who will assume control for the present until matters are wound up. The road has not been paying, and hence the interest could not be met.
