

FARMER KILLED

BY G.T. R. FRIGHT TRAIN THURSDAY EVENING.

At the Division Street Crossing—Drove Into Train as it Passed—Team of Horses Also Killed.

A sad fatality occurred Thursday evening about 8:45 o'clock, by which William Hobbs, a farmer living near the village met his death. The unfortunate man was driving home from the city and in crossing the G.T.R. tracks on Division street, was struck by a west-bound freight train with such force that he was killed, as were also the two horses in his team.

The exact manner in which the accident occurred is a mystery. Eye-witnesses state that the train had almost crossed the road when the team of horses attempted to dash into it with fatal result. One horse was killed and the occupant of the rig was so closely suffled up, on account of the cold, that he did not notice the approaching train until it was too late to avert the collision. The horses were spirited pair and may possibly have become uncontrollable at sight of the train and blindly rushed on to their death. The high wind with its contents was completely demolishing one of the horses was carried a considerable distance by the train and the other was thrown back on the road.

The body of the unfortunate man was found near that of the latter horse and it is thought that death was almost instantaneous, although William Smith, a farmer who was driving behind, stated that the man was breathing when he reached him. The fatal wounds were two bad gashes in the temple, but with the exception of several scratches on the face and hands, the body was otherwise not badly out of shape. The body was conveyed on an engine to the outer depot where it was removed to Corbett's undertaking establishment. Corbett's undertaker examined the body and drove out to the scene of the accident on Friday morning to decide whether an inquest was necessary.

The deceased came into the city early Thursday morning for some agricultural machinery from the Messrs. Harris company. He was in the implement parade on Thursday and was awarded the company's prize for being the first to have his machinery loaded on the sleigh ready for removal. He was a highly respected farmer and was favorably known to the city and surrounding country. Another sad circumstance is the fact that he leaves a wife and six young children.

The deceased was a brother-in-law of Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. John Johnson, who live in this city. Coroner Munnell returned at noon after visiting the scene of the accident. He decided that an inquest is necessary to secure all possible evidence as to the accident. The inquest will be held in the police court chamber to-night and the body of the deceased will be exhumed so that the coroner may be removed to Latimer to-morrow. The inquest will then probably adjourn for a week so that the train hands and others who saw the accident will be present to testify. There is no considerable doubt as to the details and much evidence will probably be submitted. James Dillon and his wife, Westbrook, were driving in toward the city and stopped on the opposite side of the track when they saw the approaching train. They saw the team of horses driven by the late Mr. Hobbs, approaching the train and when the train passed the horses and sleigh had disappeared. They state that the train gave no warning and the engineer did not blow the whistle. The police were out this afternoon calling the jury for the inquest to-night. Other witnesses will probably be Tollgate Keeper Walker and his wife and niece, who saw Hobbs approaching the crossing. Frank McCue and Thomas Hughes, who last saw Hobbs, will also give evidence.

MARRIED AT SYDENHAM.
An Event of Much Interest to Many Persons.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated on Wednesday morning, March 1st, at 10 o'clock, at the Union Hotel, Sydenham, when Myrtle May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, was united in marriage to Miller W. Spafford, son of Moses Spafford, of Spaffordville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Antley, of St. Paul's church, Sydenham, in the parlors of the hotel in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives. The fair young bride entered the drawing room wearing a gown of white satin, trimmed with rich and embroidered chiffon and wearing the customary veil, and she carried a large shower bouquet of pink roses and ferns. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl pin. The groom was assisted by Joseph Woodruff, of Sydenham. After the ceremony a dainty breakfast was served and Mr. and Mrs. Spafford left on a trip to New York, via Montreal. The many costly gifts displayed showed the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. The father's gift was a beautiful solid silver service.

Y.M.C.A. VS. ROCKWOODS.

Deciding Game For Beechgrove Trophy To-night.

The deciding game for the Beechgrove trophy will be played to-night at Rockwood rink between the Y.M.C.A. team and the Young Rockwoods.

The last game was protested by the Y.M.C.A. team on account of one of the Y.M.C.A. players being over the limit. The protest was sustained by the executive, and a counter-protest from the Y.M.C.A. team also disqualified one of the Young Rockwood players. This will put the teams on an equal footing, so far as the loss of players is concerned, and the game, to-night, promises to be a fast exhibition. George Vandave has been agreed upon as referee.

Hockey Notes.
"Chautau" Elliott will referee Saturday's game in Toronto, between the eastern and western teams.

Ottawa may be without Billy Gilmore and Frank McGee in their games against Portage for the Stanley Cup next week.

Jack Marshall is the latest recruit to join the ranks of the Dawson City team. He will join them on their arrival at Toronto.

Bevin, the first of the semi-final games, defeating Peterboro, 9 to 1. The return game will be played at Peterboro to-night.

The amount of the gate receipts from the game at the Beechgrove rink was received by Secretary Hewitt, together with a business-like statement from Secretary Baxter of the Smith's Falls Club. The total gate amounts to $220, and after the expenses are deducted it will give each club and the O.H.A. about $65.

The Ottawa Hockey Club must defeat the Stanley Cup against the challenging Portage team on Tuesday and Thursday, March 7th and 9th, with a third game, if necessary, on Saturday, the 11th. These are the dates finally fixed after a conference with the trustees, at which the defending club endeavored to have the 9th, 11th, and if necessary, the 13th, substituted as the dates.

James Fraser of Galt, will referee the Marboro-Smith's Falls game on Tuesday night. The Marboros had a practice last night. Only four of the seniors were out. Tyrone, Hilda, Birmingham and Young.

The latter three are still in bad shape and it is thought for him to wear a cage-like contrivance for protection. Charlton is confined to his home with a severe cold. Winchester may not play in the final game owing to parental objections.—Toronto Globe

General Items.
This spring again Mike Shea, who coached Harvard's lacrosse team last year, will again go south on a similar errand.

Wrestlers Tom Jenkins and Jim Parr have been invited to meet in a finish early Thursday morning for some prize money.

Coroner Munnell returned at noon after visiting the scene of the accident. He decided that an inquest is necessary to secure all possible evidence as to the accident.

The inquest will be held in the police court chamber to-night and the body of the deceased will be exhumed so that the coroner may be removed to Latimer to-morrow.

A CELEBRATION

THE TWENTY-SECOND YEAR OF FOUNDING.

Of Kingston Business College—'At Home' Held in City Hall—J. B. McKay, One of Founders Present—An Enjoyable Event.

To celebrate the twenty-second anniversary of Kingston Business College's founding, the students and graduates held a delightful "At Home" in the City Hall last night. There was a gathering of over five hundred, nearly all being young people. J. B. McKay, one of the founders of the college, was present from Toronto, and received warm greetings. Very pretty decorations were in evidence, and the large stage was costily arranged as a sitting-out place, but principally for the card players.

The first portion of the evening was devoted to a concert programme. Two selections were given by the orchestra, songs by Miss Heywood, Mr. Kelly, and Mrs. Gordon, a violin solo, by Miss Tolson, and two recitations by George Vandave, and two recitations by the students.

Dr. J. H. Bell acted as chairman. Immediately after the concert, the dance began and continued till four o'clock this morning, as there were twenty-five numbers on the terrific programme. This portion of the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by the young people, and all the more so because of the admirable music played by Crosby & O'Connor's orchestra.

The refreshment service was admirable and the viands delicate and tasty. The committee in charge of the affair are to be congratulated upon the success of the "At Home."

AT THE POLICE COURT.
Up on Charge of Attempted Suicide.

At the police court this morning, a charge of assault against Thomas Cuthbertson, was adjourned until to-morrow morning.

George D. Lewis, the South African veteran, after a week's remand, was up for attempting to take his own life on February 24th. Police Constable Page testified as to finding the man on the morning of February 24th, between one and two o'clock, between West and Union streets, on King street. He at first thought the man was drunk, but noticed a dark stain about his mouth, which made him suspect something more serious. He worked with the man until he partially regained consciousness. Lewis asked why he did not let him (Lewis) die, as he was no use living. Lewis admitted that he had taken laudanum, with the intention of committing suicide. The policeman then brought him into the station.

De A. R. Williamson testified as to the man's condition when he examined him at the police station. The prisoner was in a drowsy, stupid condition and he awoke him. Lewis told him that he was no use living. Lewis admitted that he had taken laudanum, with the intention of committing suicide. The policeman then brought him into the station.

Nature of the Petition.
The petition which John Gaskin is circulating and which is being largely signed is as follows:

"To the Honorable, the Senate and the House of Commons of Canada, in parliament assembled: We, the undersigned electors of the Kingston electoral division do pray that in the North-West Territories, the Dominion of West Territories, the Dominion of the Northwest Territories, or otherwise, be established provinces full and unrestrictedly, in all matters affecting the maintenance and administration of schools."

Rents Have Gone Up.
House rents have taken a decided jump and those seeking new places of abode, after May 1st, find that the advances are quite decided. No house of any size, with modern conveniences, bath and furnace can be touched under $18 and on up to $25 per month.

Smaller houses, at the advanced price of $12 and $15, are all advanced from $1 to $2 per month, the landlords having notified tenants within the past week of the increase.

An Important Meeting.
The Presbytery of Kingston holds its next meeting at 9:30 a.m., on Thursday, March 7th, in Chalmers church, Kingston. This will be the most important meeting of the year, and there will be several sessions. Commissioners to assembly will be appointed, arrangements made for licensing candidates for the ministry, etc.

Installation Postponed.
Hon. F. R. Latchford was to have been here to install the newly-elected officers of the Knights of Columbus last evening, but he found it impossible to come. The installation was accordingly postponed to a later date.

"HEARTS OF OAK"

Is Well Worth Seeing on Saturday Night.

Everyone who has witnessed any of the plays of James A. Herne will ever remember the charm of the children he introduced. Especially in "Hearts of Oak" and "Shore Acres" the children are real, living, natural beings. The author provides them with lines such as they really would utter and allows them to lip their words and express their feelings as they would in real life. The children are not the impossible beings as one usually sees on the stage; they are the types of hundreds of thousands of little ones to be found in American homes. "Hearts of Oak" with its realistic scene effects, is to be presented at the Grand Saturday afternoon and evening.

TERRY DENNIS, "Hearts of Oak."

"Pretty Peggy," the remarkable New York dramatic success, in which Jane Corcoran, supported by Andrew Robinson and a large metropolitan company, will be seen at the Grand on Monday, March 6th, and promises to be one of the most notable attractions of the season. And the unusual great demand for seats betokens that local theatre-goers are fully aware of its merits.

VERY FEW PEOPLE
Are Free From Some Form Of Indigestion.

Very few people are free from some form of indigestion, but scarcely two will have the same symptoms.

Some suffer most directly after eating, bloating from gas in stomach and bowels, others have heartburn or sour risings, still others have palpitation of heart, headaches, sleeplessness, pains in chest, pain in the shoulder blades, some have extreme nervousness, as in nervous dyspepsia.

But whatever the symptoms may be, the cause in all cases of indigestion is the same, that is the stomach has some reason fails to properly and promptly digest what is eaten.

This is the whole story of stomach troubles in a nutshell. The stomach must have rest and assistance, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give it both by supplying those natural digestive juices which every weak stomach lacks, owing to the failure of the gastric glands in the stomach to secrete sufficient acid and pepsin to thoroughly digest and assimilate the food eaten.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs, or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment, which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut a hard-boiled egg into very small pieces, and place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar, containing warm water heated to ninety-eight degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle they will do to the stomach and will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectively. Even a little child can take Stuart's Tablets with safety and thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are amply explained when it is understood how they are composed of vegetable essences, aspeptic, pepsin, diastase and golden seal, which mingle with the food and digest it thoroughly, relieving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Biting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested, there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world-wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 25 cents for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.
