Brightest Gem in the Great British Monarchical Republic-Advice to United Statesers About Settling in Our Great Northwest-Some Incidental Facts Picked Up in the Course of a Traveling Correspond-

Garnet C. Porter, editor of The Calgary Herald, writes an interesting letter to The Clarksville Piker, a paper published in Pike County, Missouri, Mr. Porter's native county. He speaks in glowing terms of the Northwest and of the Dominion of Canada in general, seeking to disabuse the American mind of the idea that the country south of the 49th parallel is the whole continent.

"No Piker should let his inborn prejudice against kings and foreign monarchs deter him from looking in this direction if he really wants to make money.
