Instant Relief from Asthma.

Whenever you feel a coughing spell coming on, light a small quantity of Chester's Cure and inhale the smoke. The relief is instant. The vapor soothes the membrane, loosens the expectoration, prevents the horrible choking sensation. After you've used CHESTER'S CURE a few times, you'll notice the asthmatic attacks are less severe and farther apart. You'll find you rest easier, and probably sleep through the entire night without a coughing spell. Then you know Chester's Cure is doing you good, and the testimony of hundreds cured by it. Told in the Twilight

Mrs. Drury gave a large and most enjoyable bridge party, yesterday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Farrell. There were six tables in play, and the prizes were won by Mrs. James Gilderdeve and Mrs. R. T. Walker. The first prize was a beautiful Tiffany vase, and the second a cut glass and silver vinaigrette.

Mrs. Robert Fraser's progressive euchre, last night, at her home on Union street, when about twenty guests were present, was a very jolly affair, pleasant, perhaps, than a larger one would have been, as everybody had an opportunity of having a go at the game. The prizes were very pretty, the ladies' first prize being a china bon-bon dish, which Mrs. Uglow won. Miss Bessie Spangenberg and Mrs. Donald played off the corner, and the prizes were divided. The men's first prize, a silver match box, went to Mr. Uglow, and Mr. L. Henderson won Mr. Pollock's prize, the second prize, a pack of cards in a leather case, with counters accompanying. Mr. Henderson getting it.

Mrs. Elmer Davis gave a very pleasant little tea on Saturday, for her sister-in-law, Miss Davis. There were about twelve guests present, among them being Mrs. Smith, of Napawa, who spent the week end with Mrs. Davis. The floral decorations were white and pink tulips and refreshments which were very delicious were served at a card table. During the afternoon Mrs. Smith played several much enjoyed piano numbers, and Miss Eleda Perley sang charmingly.
