TALK OF PEACE

EUROPEAN NATIONS ARE ANXIOUS FOR IT.

Berlin, March 14.—The opinion that peace between Japan and Russia is apparently gaining ground here.

The Kreuzzeitung, which is the foremost authority on Russian affairs in the German press, believes that Emperor Nicholas cannot long keep from himself the fact that he lacks the resources and power necessary to reconquer Manchuria, because it will require many years to double-track the Siberian railway.

Views At Berlin.

Berlin, March 14.—The opinion that peace between Japan and Russia is apparently gaining ground here. The Kreuzzeitung, which is the foremost authority on Russian affairs in the German press, believes that Emperor Nicholas cannot long keep from himself the fact that he lacks the resources and power necessary to reconquer Manchuria, because it will require many years to double-track the Siberian railway.

Spoils For Japanese.

Tokio, March 14.—A telegram, received to-day from headquarters in the field, says in the direction of Sing-chin our forces have been dislodging the enemy from Yingpan, eighteen miles east of Pynshan, and have occupied that place. In the mountainous district the Shikho river, all our forces are continuing the pursuit of the remnant of the army, and many Russian officers and men are surrendering to our train guards in the mountainous districts east of the Tie Pass road.

PLENTY OF ICE

Will Make a Late Date For Navigation.

Special to the Whig. Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., March 14.—The probable opening date of navigation is hard to forecast, but it is likely that it will be April 15th. There is still twenty-four inches of ice in the river. There was no mid-winter thaw and, up to a week ago, the temperature touched zero nearly every night.

MADE A RAID

And a Gambling Place Was Cleaned Out.

Special to the Whig. Montreal, March 14.—Child Detective Carpenter and the members of his staff, made a raid, last night, on the establishment of Israel Capovitch, corner of Dufferin and Cadieux streets, where there was a gambling place, and keeping five men, ranging from eighteen to forty-one years, on charges of frequenting the place.

CUT TO PIECES

In G.T.R. Station Yard at Montreal.

Special to the Whig. Montreal, March 14.—Louis Leclair, fifty years of age, gatekeeper at Lussine street crossing of G.T.R., was killed by an engine while on duty last night. He was crossing from one side to the other, and had just stepped behind a train that was going out, when he was knocked down and cut to pieces, by an engine which was backing down to Bonaventure station.

The Good Results.

Special to the Whig. Toronto, March 14.—The Home Mission committee, of the Presbyterian church, met, this morning, in Old St. Andrew's church, with Rev. Dr. Wardman in the chair. The total receipts were $127,658 from ordinary sources, and $10,000 from legacies which is double the revenue of six years ago.

The visitors are having a good time here as the guests of the Wanderers. Keene and Bourdon, their two star men, will play in to-night's match.

Incidents of the Day.

Special to the Whig. Toronto, March 14.—The Post has heard that important dispatches regarding the possibility of peace were received to-day, by Lord Lansdowne, from M. Delcasse, French minister of foreign affairs, based on a special report from the Comptar, French ambassador to St. Petersburg. It is stated that communications are passing between London and Berlin and Paris with the object of finding a way out of the tragic impasse in Manchuria.

Head of Salvation Army Has Chosen His Successor.

London, March 14.—"General" Booth, the veteran head of the Salvation Army, has chosen his successor in command, according to calling, while on his journey to the Holy Land and Australia or return, to receive his heavenly reward for his life of self-sacrifice here on earth. The greatest Christian missionary of a century, who is now in his seventy-sixth year, will in a few days have his head buried in the hills of his Master at Bethlehem. But before he left London, when he was asked what would happen to the army if he died during his journey, he said: "The thing will go on exactly as before. No one will know any difference except regret at parting with me—and, I think, confidence in my successor. The general is dead! Long rangements will be made to accommodate the funeral." "Is the successor appointed by you, or elected?" he was asked. "The army is appointed by the general himself, according to form and the direction and control of the solicitors for the army. But we have just had a new deed enrolled providing that anything happens to a general which disqualifies him for the position, he can be removed and replaced by the consent of the leading officers."

E. W. FOLGER OUT.

The New Commissioners to Meet Very Soon.

Special to the Whig. Toronto, March 14.—It is said that the new members of the New York Railway Commission will meet to-day. Mr. Deane, commissioner of public works, to consider the whole situation, from the railway will be thoroughly discussed and the commission will be made acquainted with the government's policy in regard to the line. The commission, after the conference, will appoint a chairman and arrange for an early trip over the line to make themselves practically acquainted with the work done and to be done. The resignations of all the old members of the commission are now in the hands of Mr. Folger, Kingston, having arrived yesterday.

SUFFOCATED BY GAS.

A Sad Event in Toronto Disclosed.

Special to the Whig. Toronto, March 14.—W. Eugene, aged seventeen, was found asphyxiated, this morning, in bed at his boarding house, 22 Wilson avenue, with the gas jet of a stove turned on. It is supposed that he accidentally turned the jet of the stove while turning off the illuminating jet alongside. He was employed at Hortological Institute.

Latimer Locals.

Latimer, March 11.—Wood cutting is the order of the day. The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Lyon, on Wednesday. Mrs. John Allison, city, visiting at James Sherman's, has returned home. Miss Elizabeth J. Taylor, having spent several weeks at her parents' home, returned to New York City, on Saturday. Mr. Sherwood recently visited at Elgin. Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Edwards, Souris, Man., spent a few days of last week with relatives. Mrs. Robert Lyver is spending a few weeks at Gananoque. H. A. Darling is spending a few weeks at Gananoque. Misses M. L. Blanche Taylor and L. Blanche Taylor, Sydenham, spent Saturday and Sunday at their parents' home. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tolls, Inverary, spent Thursday at A. Rector's.

Again Adjourned.

Special to the Whig. Montreal, March 14.—When the Gay nor Green case was called, before Judge Lafontaine, extradition commissioner, to-day, Mr. Coe, counsel for the defence asked for an adjournment for eight days. Donald MacMaster agreed to the postponement but said that he would be ready on the 22nd to proceed with the case day after day until it was finished. His witnesses from the United States will all be here.

A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. William Lawlor Sr. Has Passed Away.

A very sad death occurred shortly before noon, to-day, when Mrs. William Lawlor, Sr., Wellington street, passed away, after an illness of several days. The late Mrs. Lawlor had apparently been in the best of health, last night, and this morning attended the five o'clock mass at St. Mary's cathedral. During the service she was taken ill, and was forced to leave the church, and go home. Dr. Robert Hanley was summoned to the house, and she was put to bed, her family not thinking that her condition was serious. Shortly before twelve o'clock her daughter went up to her mother's room to enquire as to her condition. Receiving no response, she suspected the worst, and soon discovered that her mother had breathed her last. Death is supposed to have been due to heart trouble, as the deceased, who was aged fifty-four years, has apparently enjoyed the best of health, a husband and five children, Albert, William, Thomas, May and Susie, all in Kingston, survive to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
