Bovril Makes Young Blood in Old Veins:

Cold in the Twilight

The "linen shower" for the Kingston General Hospital, for which Mrs. Hiram Calvin very kindly gave her house, was a far greater success than its promoters expected, or even hoped for. Quantities of supplies of all kinds have been sent, and the amount of money received by Mrs. J. C. Connell, president of the Woman's Aid Association, and by Miss Gordon, the superintendent, were taken by Mrs. George Y. Chowen. A good business in cakes and sweets was done by Mrs. Garrett, who had as aids Miss Louise Kirkpatrick and Miss Lorraine Johnston, and his wife, Mrs. D. M. Gordon, and Mrs. A. S. Oliver, over the coffee and tea, and their assistants were Mrs. Francis King, Miss Marion Lewis, Miss Gertrude Strange, Miss Katie Gondy, Miss Beatrice Tandy, Miss Etta Sparks, Miss Alice Hague and Miss Mildred Jones. The committee for kind thought, the result of which will be such a boon to our needy hospital.

The Woman's Aid Society return thanks for the following articles: Thirtynine dozen towels; twenty and one-half dozen pillows; eight and one-half dozen tray cloths; six and one-half dozen napkins; one dozen double-gauze dust sheets; a dozen and one-half dresser covers; three pairs of blankets; thirteen pairs of blanket sheets; four night-gowns; one dozen and nine night-jackets; twelve yards canton flannel.

The Skating Club meet, last night, was very jolly, and most of the skaters had fun. The girls were from nine to eleven, to allow churchgoers to attend both their religious duties and their pleasures. If the cold weather continues there will be yet another meet, on Saturday night. There were no refreshments at last night's meet, but the boys did not interfere with the enjoyment.

The Sketching Club, which has recently been kept alive here by the enthusiastic interest of its secretary, Mrs. Nash, is wondering how in the world it is going to get on without her. She has ever been such an inspiration. As one member said: "One went to meetings when one didn't feel able to, first because Mrs. Nash expected us to go." And this incentive to perseverance was just the best help the secretary could give her club, and its result is seen in the good work done by the members. Mrs. Nash's latest water-color, an extremely pretty summer bit, and which has just been completed, is being greatly admired by her friends.

Mrs. David Laird gave a small evening party on Tuesday, in honor of Miss Jessie Dowday, who is staying with Miss Rigney.

Mrs. John MacGillivray gave a small tea on Saturday, for a few of Miss Margaret McCallister's old friends, when the guest of honor gave an interesting talk on her missionary work in India.

Mrs. W. J. R. White asked a few people to tea last night.

There was the usual Badminton meet yesterday. An election will take place next week.

Dr. Margaret McKellar went up on Tuesday to Madoc, and will go to Almonte on Friday. Dr. McCallister has given a number of very beautiful jewels by grateful patients in India, among them a large cross of gold set with amethysts.

Miss Margaret King has so far recovered from her serious illness that she was at a little tea, yesterday, where she almost divided honors with the hostess, as everyone wanted to take the opportunity of saying how well she was now.

Mrs. Boston Smith left yesterday for Sherbrooke, Que.

Mrs. Cappon and the Misses Macne have gone to New York.

Miss Ross, who has been visiting in Quebec, is now staying with Miss McLennan, in Montreal.

Mrs. Peirce left yesterday, with her daughter, Mrs. Weston, for Toronto, and with her going Kingston loses one who was sincerely loved by young and old among her friends.

Miss Gertrude Wilkinson is up from Montreal General Hospital for a short visit.

Mrs. Burton Horsey is now much better, and has been able to sit up for a short time for the past few days.

Miss May Hinckley is home from the hospital and will be able to be out in a few days.

Mr. Longstreet, widow of Gen.

Washington, D.C., March 16.—President Roosevelt is said to be about to show his good will toward the south by offering to Mrs. John B. Gordon, widow of the famous confederate leader, the office of postmistress of Atlanta.

Mrs. Longstreet, widow of Gen. Longstreet, was recently appointed postmistress at Gainesville. The president feels especially cordial toward Georgia, his mother being a Georgia woman.

All cases of weak or lame back, rheumatism, will find relief by wearing one of Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters. Price 25c. Try them.

One gallon tin of pumpkin, regular price 25c., for 15c., at Mullin's.

Mrs. Edward Rathbun, of Deseronto, has rented a house in Admiral road.

Miss Otterley, Fellowes, of Toronto, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Ashworth, manager of the Bank of Montreal in Deseronto.

The appointment of Capt. James Fraser Macdonald as the official secretary of the lieutenant-governor of Ontario, is a particularly happy one, he and his wife (formerly Miss Daisy Lancing, of Niagara), being persons of great distinction in Toronto, and so very well known.

Hon. J. P. Whitney, will not take up his permanent residence in Toronto before next autumn or winter, al- though his family will be there a good portion of the time.

The engagement has been announced in Montreal of Miss Margaret Scott, daughter of Mr. D. G. Scott, John street, this city, to Mr. G. Hilton Smith, of Montreal. The wedding will take place in September.

An English wedding that will interest a good many people who the Prince and Princess of Wales to Canada, is that of Lady Mary Lygon, sister of Lord Beauchamp, to Major Trist, of the Scots Guards. The marriage will probably deprive the princess of the services of a maid-of-honor, which office Lady Mary has held for some time.

ONLY PARTLY TRUE.

Popular Ideas Regarding Catarrh.

It is the common belief that what is popularly known as catarrh is simply a chronic cold in the head. This is as true as far as it goes, but as a mat- ter of fact, catarrh is by no means confined to nasal passages, but ex- tends wherever the mucous mem- brane extends, which means nearly every part of the body.

The mucous membrane is the inside skin of the body and is nearly as ex- tensive as the outside skin, and any inflammation of this membrane re- quires an extra secretion of fluid is required.

Catarrh is, therefore, an old enemy disguised by many confusing names, for instance: Rhinitis is nasal catarrh; laryngitis and pharyngitis throat catarrh; gastritis, stomach catarrh; cystitis and nephritis, catarrh of the bladder and kidneys.

Therefore, although the location of the trouble gives it various names, in reality there is but one catarrh, and that is the common cold.

Do not make the mistake of thinking you have no catarrh because the head and nose appear to be clear. If there is a cough, tickling in the throat and hoarseness you have throat catarrh, if there is no appetite, but nausea, gagging and disgust for food especially in the morning, you have catarrh of the stomach.

The sweet treatment for every form of catarrh is an external remedy which acts especially on the blood and mucous membranes; such a remedy is the new preparation sold everywhere by druggists under the name of Stuart's

Catarrh Tablets, a medicine in pleasant tablet form and containing all the best and latest specifics for catarrh.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain in highly concentrated form, bloodroot, red gum of the Eucalyptus tree, and many others equally valuable curative elements, and no one who suffers from any form of catarrh and has seen the inefficiency of domestic sprays and powders will care to go back to them once trying to so pleasant a preparation as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and one which gives so much relief in so short a time.

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50c. for full sized package and the regular, daily use of them will effectively cure this troublesome and dangerous disease.

WINDOW SMASHERS.

Youths Have Been Throwing

Snowballs.

The police authorities have, for some time past, been receiving complaints from property owners in the vicinity of Gore, Earl and King streets, that panes of glass in their houses and buildings have been torn out by boys practicing the gentle art of snowballing.

The complaints have been numerous and more than fifty panes of window glass have been reported broken by the youthful "smashers."

Yesterday afternoon P. C. Graham visited the portion of the city where the boys have been operating and, since the satisfaction of the complainants, he agreed to round up the entire party.

Walking up one of the streets he met a couple of youths, who, when he saw the policeman endeavored to side-step and get out of sight. This sign of guilt was so evident that the officer requested and followed the boys to the house where, after a short interview, the youngsters lost their nerve and confessed all, naming their confederates. The policeman informed the boys' parents and then lined up a squad of five frightened youths who were marched in line to the parliament. After hearing the parliament the boys were allowed to go home after assurance had been given by their parents that the damage would be made good.

INTRODUCES CLOSURE IN HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Asquith Raises Scandal Cry—

Premier Pleads Necessity in Order to Secure Timely Sanction of Estimates on Public Supplies.

London, March 16.—Premier Balfour introduced the "closure" in the House of Commons yesterday, with the object of securing the sanctioning of the estimates before March 31st.

In moving on the closure the premier declared that it was necessary in order to secure the requisite votes before the close of the financial year.

The step taken was for the credit of the government from difficulty, he said. Prolonged debates delayed business, and closure was more in consonance with the dignity of the house than the spirit of the times.

The premier, however, did not intend to raise the reputation of the House of Commons.

Mr. Asquith, liberal, in a few caustic sentences moved the adjournment.

He declared that Mr. Balfour's motion was a "most impudent" and "ridiculous" proposal to "immortalize" a deliberative assembly.
