ST. ANTOINE CASE

NOW IN JURY'S HANDS--VERDICT PERHAPS TO-DAY.

Judge Charged Strongly Against All Prisoners But One—Plans Personal Election, on Large Scale—Six on Trial.

Special to the Whig. Montreal, March 31.—The St. Antoine conspiracy case, arising out of the federal election in that division, is now in the hands of the jury, and a verdict is expected this afternoon.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY. News Paragraphs Picked Up By Reporters On Their Rounds.

St. Petersburg, March 31.—It is understood that the imperial commission under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasovich, which has been constituted to inquire into the situation of the war, has completed its preliminary report, which favors a continuance of the war, finding nothing in the present situation, either financial or military, to prevent its prosecution.

WAR TO CONTINUE. St. Petersburg, March 31.—It is understood that the imperial commission under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasovich, which has been constituted to inquire into the situation of the war, has completed its preliminary report, which favors a continuance of the war, finding nothing in the present situation, either financial or military, to prevent its prosecution.

before ten o'clock, and the start was made in a sharp exchange of personal remarks, between two of the parties most interested. An adjournment was made from the hour in which the preliminary took place, and in front of the Whig office, the real battle was commenced.

Wille Lewis, the two-year-old, who, last night, drank some of the contents of a carbolio acid bottle, which his sister had been using for toothache, died, this morning, in the hospital.

The Grocers' Wholesale Co., Ltd., of Hamilton, has commenced action against the Dominion Grocers' Guild, in the matter of the price of sugar.

One of the amendments which Mr. Hanna intimated would be made to the liquor license act, this session, provides against the sale of liquor to persons under the age of twenty-one.

As Viewed From Afar. (Special Heliograph despatch from the British-American hotel.) King street was the scene of what might have been a bloody encounter this morning, only for the intervention of friends.

A Spring Like Feeling. The market square section of the city was not the only portion where citizens were treated to an exhibition of the many art of self-defense, this morning.

No Decision Yet. A meeting of the city contractors was held last night to consider a communication received from the labor unions of carpenters, masons and tin-smiths.
