PEACE TERMS.

Russia Must Pay Cost of The War.

ITS $650,000,000

ACCORDING TO JAPAN'S FIN- ANCIAL MAN.

Commissioner M. Takahashi Talks in London—China is Awakened and Moving Along Similar Lines to Japan—Japanese to Occupy Harbin.

Special to the Whig—London, April 1.—M. Takahashi, the Japanese special financial commissioneer, in an interview said:

"Our estimate is $250,000,000 and $300,000,000 the first year, and it is estimated that it will cost $350, 000,000 during the present year."

"It would be unprecedented in the history of wars that no indemnity and no territory be given up by the vanquished."

While it is beyond my province to disclose the secret of peace, I can express my personal opinion that as the war was forced upon Japan it is not likely that she will waive the right to an indemnity and cession of territory when concluding peace.

"What indemnity will be demanded I cannot say but it is my private opinion that it will at least cover the expenses of the war."

"If Russia assumes that a continuance of the war will deplete our finances before her it will be another mistake of judgement on her part."

"We can maintain a sufficient army in Manchuria and our forces in Japan remaining in Manchuria and administering the provinces on a war footing, which we do not desire."

"Manchuria is fertile and productive, and an army can be maintained there more economically than in the case of the fortresses in Siberia."

"Russia's present plan for the termination of a war of finances we are willing The longer the war lasts the more we sustain it will be that it will not be resumed."

M. Takahashi spoke regarding the conditions of China since the Chin-Japanese war. He said China was not strong enough to defend itself and was situated on the corner of Gare and Ontario Streets, Kingston, the property
