MET TO ORGANIZE. THE EVENTS TO BE HELD ON VICTORIA DAY.

To Have a Military Demonstration as Usual—New Features Will Be Aquatic Sports and a Balloon Ascension. The Victoria day general committee met at the city hall last evening to organize for the celebration. The committee is strong and enthusiastic over the affair. It was first decided that there should be a military demonstration as in the past, and a committee consisting of Col. Bushan, Drury, Lieut. Col. Fagan, Lieut. Col. Ogilvie, Lieut. Col. Kent, Major White and Major Abbott was appointed to arrange the details. The secretary will communicate with those officers and invite them to co-operate. They have done so in the past, and no doubt, will again lend their services. The secretary was instructed to write to outside organizations, with which one would be likely to accept an invitation to spend Victoria day here.

It was decided that the sports should consist of aquatic events in the morning, and horse races, baseball, etc., in the afternoon. The former will likely start in the harbor directly in front of the buildings. It was also decided to have a balloon ascension, the cost of which would be moderate, viz., fifty dollars. The following committees were appointed: Sports—A. M. Chisholm, (chairman); W. Dunigan, G. A. McLean, J. E. Brickwood, S. Lowe, A. E. Shannon, Alderman Hoag, Alderman Rigby, D. J. McDermott, D. Reeves and J. Hiscock. Horse races—C. D. Horne, Dr. G. W. Bell, Dr. Morgan, F. McCue, F. Whitney, S. Harkness, Dr. Hanley, G. A. McLean, John Fisher, Alderman Malen, John Sowards, Alderman Musto, A. E. Hunt, (chairman); R. Abernethy, D. A. Shaw, D. Reeves, B. Provost.

The following committee on finance and printing will make the appropriation: Alderman Hoag, Alderman McKay, Alderman Angrove, G. H. Williams, A. M. Chisholm, H. D. Black, W. Dunigan, A. F. Honey, H. Black, S. Lowe, W. Dunigan, (chairman). The city auditor will be asked to audit the books and accounts after the celebration. No complimentary tickets will be issued for the afternoon events without the approval of the mayor. On Monday afternoon, the committee on sports, horse races and music will meet to draft their programme.

A BIG LEAKAGE. Has Been Discovered in the Water-works System.

Superintendent Hewitt has discovered that there is a serious leakage in the waterworks system at or near the locomotive works. For a time it has been going on, and has had to cover the whole system to locate it. A test convinced him that it was in the works. The leakage amounts to quite an item when the pumps at the waterworks station have to be started about two hours earlier in the evening than customary. Mr. Bermingham says that at the works they have examined every bit of exposed pipe and found nothing. He is confident, though the test proved that it was somewhere there. However, he thinks it may be in the main at the foot of the street, so far nothing has been done. So far nothing has been done. So far nothing has been done.

A FINE ATTRACTION. Was Seen at the Grand Last Night.

Miss Bertha Galland's appearance at the Grand Opera House last night in the dramatized novel, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," was welcomed by a fairly large house, but on the other side of the production a much larger audience should have greeted this charming artist, in one of the best attractions that has visited Kingston. Miss Galland's portrayal of the beautiful Dorothy Vernon, the pretty maiden with the rosy cheeks and uncertain temper, was exceedingly clever, and the audience was not backward in showing its appreciation. Her powers of expression both in looks and speech, and the probability of her leaving from her opening lines until the happy closing of her troubled romance. The other ladies in the production marked their ability in their different parts. In fact, the company showed great strength with no apparent weakness. Helen Ford, a former Kingston girl, as Mary Gordon, played her difficult part in a manner which immediately won the sympathy of the audience. Miss Ellen Sumner was given the part of the tramping role of Elizabeth Tudor. John W. Dean, as Dorothy's enterprising young lover, was graceful and eloquent and of commanding appearance with an excellent voice and much merit as an actor. Dorothy's father, was a success and Fred Peters, the faithful jester, in both his lighter and more serious parts, showed marked ability. The stage settings and costumes were artistically and historically correct and gave the impression of exactness in the staging of the drama. After such of the grand opera, the leading artists were given enthusiastic curtain calls and at the close, Miss Galland's final appearance before the audience, which was warmly greeted, she left the stage with the commendation of all who were present.

Dora Thorne, To Night.

The national dramatic appetite of the amusement going public is experiencing a most delightful novelty this season, a most appetizing novel in the way of a play called "Dora Thorne" which comes to the city, and while there may be "nothing new under the sun" a change of circumstance is bound to make a change in effect, and it plays a most important part in dramatic offerings. "Dora Thorne" will be seen at the Grand to-night, and a superb scenic production is assured.

Lillian Mortimer.

"Girl of the Streets," the thrilling melodrama written by that clever comedienne, Lillian Mortimer, which is being used by her as a starring vehicle, will be at the Grand on Thursday, April 6th, and sets a new pace for the popular price play. There is a great moral lesson taught and in a manner as will never be forgotten. The stage settings are of great magnitude.

Thayer In "Sweet Clover."

The above named artist will be seen in the beautiful play mentioned, in this city, Saturday, April 5th. Mr. Thayer claims to be in "Sweet Clover," in more ways than the one suggested. He is in "Sweet Clover" this time more than ever, because the theatre-going public, in every class, wherever he has appeared with his popular play and clever company, have demonstrated by their increased patronage and warm approval of his work, that both the play and himself have grown in the esteem and admiration of the public.

On the Resignation of Fireman McKee From the Brigade.

The fire and light committee met yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. Present, Messrs. Mowat, Harkness, Bell and McKay were present. Ald. McKay remarked that the city council did not think much of his fire light committee when it overruled its decision, and the veterinary. "Yes," said Ald. McKay, "but our own chairman voted against the committee's report." "Well, it looks as though we have two veterinary doctors for the fire department now," said Ald. McKay. "Yes, for the present, but it may not be long," the chairman replied. The resignation of Fireman McKee was considered. The chairman said he understood that he wished to withdraw the resignation. Ald. Harkness said it would be unwise to take action yet, as the assistant chief is ill and would not be able to resume his duties for six weeks. In view of the matter in abeyance, application for the position and for that of callman were accordingly held over. The committee adjourned early, having only some routine business to transact.

Kingston W.F.M.S. Presbyterian.

The annual meeting was held in St. Peter's church, Macoe, March 15th. The president, Mrs. MacKay, occupied the chair. The morning session was taken up with the reading of the reports which were, on the whole, very encouraging. Eight boxes of clothing, weighing 1,200 pounds, and valued at $56, were sent to Rev. Mr. Pritchard, Lizard Pt. Reserve; 353 copies of the "Foreign Missionary Tidings" were taken, an increase of thirty over last year, and $1,200 worth contributed to the funds of the society. This is in advance of previous years.

Yesterday he visited the county jail, general hospital, Hotel Dieu, Orphans' and the Home for Friendless Women. He was accompanied by W. W. His report on the county jail was especially favorable, with respect to the condition of the grounds and buildings and the conduct of the thirteen inmates, twelve male and one female, who are confined there. TO NEXT SATURDAY. WAS THE STREET RIOT CASE ADJOURNED.

The Counsel for the Defendant Will Call Several Hundred Witnesses—The Magistrate Championed Action of Police Officer. At the April Fool session of the police court, this morning, the magistrate took the first step in discovering the rights and wrongs of the street riot which occurred in front of the Whig office bulletin, yesterday morning. James H. Brickwood and Cornelius Millan were charged with assaulting and ill-treating Alexander Arthurs, on that occasion. John McIntyre, K.C., appeared for the defendant, primarily, he explained for the proprietor of the Iroquois, who was not present, and also, incidentally, for his partner in the alleged charge. His plea in both cases was "not guilty," spoken with an assurance that was positively refreshing. The attendance in the court room was small owing to the fact that it was generally supposed that the case would receive its preliminary hearing on Monday morning. Mr. McIntyre inquired by whom the charge was laid, and when informed by the court that Sgt. Snodden had done so on the authority of Chief Bailie, he questioned the validity of the charge on the grounds that the assaulted party should have laid the charge of the argument, and when the counsel for the defence spoke in a somewhat disparaging manner of the police sergeant's action, the magistrate championed the cause of the police in no uncertain terms. Requests for an adjournment were made by the defendants and here again arose an argument of a more or less good nature. Mr. McIntyre explained that owing to the large crowd in attendance at the melee, it would be necessary to summon several hundred witnesses, but his worship could be persuaded that such a waste of legal forms and valuable time was unwarranted. The magistrate suggested Wednesday, as a suitable day for trial, but defendant's counsel argued in favor of Saturday, owing to the previous engagements of the parties interested, who were expected to be present at Earl Grey's reception and entertainment. Saturday was fixed by the court for the adjourned hearing. An elderly man, with side-bar whiskers, also a husky voice, admitted that he was drunk yesterday afternoon, but told the magistrate a plausible story of how it all happened and valuable time was allowed to leave our fair city, was allowed to bow himself gratefully from the presence of the magistrate.
