 Mrs. Iva Martin's large supper party given on Wednesday night, in honor of Mrs. Raymond Reade, was one of the smartest events of this bright season. Her guests came on from Charles Hawtreay, and the time became pleasantly spent as Mrs. Reade arrived, Mr. R. F. Harvey playing several piano numbers, several of the party having a quiet little game of ping-pong, but the majority taking the opportunity of having an old-time "talk." Supper was served at midnight, at small tables, upon each of which was a small vase holding sweet peas. Boxes filled the drawing-room, and the smoking-room was full with pink tulips. It was all so gay with pink tulips. It was close to midnight in the morning before people thought of leaving for home. Amongst the guests, who numbered about sixty, were of course Colonel and Mrs.
 Reade, Colonel and Mrs. Buchan, Colonel and Mrs. Ogilvie, Colonel and Mrs. H. E. Kent, Mrs. Hemmings, Colonel and Mrs. Frank Strang, Mr. and Mrs. John Bell Carruthers, Captain and Mrs. Dawson, Major Macne, Mr. and Mrs. Macnaughton, Mrs. Reade, Mrs.

 bers.

Mrs. Skinner's informal little tea, on Tuesday, for a few of Mrs. Nash's old friends, was a very pleasant one, and the cozy, delightful drawing-room at "Maitland House" made an inviting harbour from the cold and rain of out-of-doors, that between it, and the cordial welcome of the hostess and her daughter, and the congenial companionship, people made a very long stay indeed. Tea and coffee were poured by Miss Ella Fraser, and Miss Gertrude Strang, and jangled made the table bright with their golden blooms. Those present were the guests of honor, Mrs.
 Nash, Mrs. Lennox Mills, Mrs. Buxton Smith, Miss Carmichael, of New Glasgow, N.S., Mrs. Sydenham McGill, statement setting forth that the date for annual training in camp, June 27th, is too late, and that they will be unable to secure their complement of men and horses to go into camp at that date. A majority of officers favor June 15th, as that date would allow the men to return to the farms in time for haying. It is understood that a change is also favored by the headquarters staff, but just what date will be selected is unknown to those not in the confidence of the staff.

Lieut.-Col. Putman, commanding the 16th Regiment, Pietera, called the officers of the regiment together, to talk over business affairs and prepare for the coming season's drill. These committees were appointed: Band, Capt. Carter, Adams, Gilmore, and Serg. Maj. Kidd; mess, Capt. Pellet, Jarvis and Donald; rifle range, Capt.
 Pellet, Gilmore and Adams. It was decided to adopt straw hats for drill purposes in camp. The regiment is "hooking up" and with new energy installed into its affairs, promises to continue its upward course until the old-time standing of merit is again reached.

The general order issued by the militia department for the completion and return of service rolls early in the spring each succeeding year, has been modified, as it was shown by militia officers to be impracticable.
 Now recruiting must be continued seasonally until the rolls are complete, when they must be sent in, and it is urged that recruiting be completed at as early a date as possible. The object of having these rolls sent in to headquarters early in the year is to give the authorities an idea of the number of men to be trained, so that financial arrangements may be completed therefor.

The course of instruction for the qualification of officers, non-commissioned officers and men of No. 3 company, C.A.S.C., which has been going on for the past six weeks, is at an end, and next week the examinations will be conducted. The course opened with Capt. Dodge in charge, but upon his transfer to St. John N.B., Major White and Lieut. Snelling took up the lectures and carried on the work to a successful end.

There are in Canada, 124 cadet corps organizations, under military jurisdiction. The St. Andrew's High land Cadets, of Kingston, is No. 82.
 Col. Drury, C. B., appointed to command the Halifax regiment, will report there for duty by May 1st.
 It is probable that Capt. Gray will be gazetted junior major of the 47th Regiment.

MILITARY NEWS
FOR MEMBERS OF KINGSTON GARRISON.
Date Selected for Camp Here is Unsatisfactory—Change in Militia Orders—Rifle Range Badly Needed in Kingston.
 It is said that the reason why the dates of some of the camps are fixed so late is this: The militia department has only a certain amount of money to expend before the close of the fiscal year, June 30th. If all the camps were concluded before that date there would be a deficiency. Hence a division is made so that part of the cost will be charged to the next fiscal year. Some change will have to be made in the financial arrangement, so that the camps will all be held early in June.

It is likely that Lieut.-Col. Fages will succeed Col. Drury as commandant of the local artillery brigade, as he is next in line for promotion. That division is made so that part of the
 in June.

Another training season has come around and Kingston, one of the most important garrison towns in the dominion, is still without a rifle range.
 Year in and out the militia of Kingston, not to mention the many corps of the junior officers, are present in the batteries. Capt. Duple, and Leslie are in line for advancement, and the command of the two batteries may go to them.

Rapid promotion is possible for some of the junior officers, as present in
 Leslie are in line for advancement,
 may go to them.

Capt. Dodge, of the C.A.S.C., in charge of the local permanent branch but at present conducting a course of instruction at St. John N.B., will probably be transferred to Halifax, when the dominion assumes control of military affairs in that city. As this is the most important station in Canadia, the selection of Capt. Dodge to assume charge of the C.A.S.C. there speaks highly of his qualifications. His many friends in Kingston and elsewhere will be pleased to learn of his good fortune.

 ments in this district have signed a
