Full of Easter

At no former time has the store presented quite so attractive appearance as just now. Elegance and excellence, quantity and quality, newness and novelty, awaken interest and command attention at every turn.

Most beautiful of all is the Millinery. Millinery this season has advanced to a loftier plane, set a higher niche for itself in the realm of art.

Parisian inspiration is of course seen in most of the models; but in execution American influence is frequently apparent, minor details being altered to be more in line with American tastes and ideas.

Easter is almost here. We've beautiful hats by the score to show you; also Untrimmed Hats, with the choicest of trimmings and accessories. Just sufficient time for careful inspection and delivery before the date established by custom for the first public appearance of the spring modes-Easter Sunday.
