

Emulsion?

Emulsion (Scott's) of cod liver oil is repulsive. Because it is easily digested, it enters the system without effort, while the burden and a tax on the system after entering the system, it is likely to ferment and its slow action. Because it is always the same in quality and composition, while others vary in all three of these particulars. Because Scott's Emulsion is a hundred times more desirable than any plain emulsion.

Easter Eggs

By... Kate M. Cleary

(Copyright, 1904, by Kate M. Cleary.)

AND you're sure that you won't forget, Rody?"

"I'm sure that I will!" retorted Roderick Ferrol, his admirable patience worn to a frazzle by the repeated injunctions of his sister. "If you tell me once again that the basket with the bit of blue yarn tied to the handle is to be left at the doctor's on my way to the depot and the basket with the pink yarn on the handle is to be taken to the city and given to Cousin Susanna, I'll leave both of 'em at home!"

"That might be better than gettin' 'em mixed up!" commented Mrs. Spicer dryly. "I've had hard-billed and colored eggs every Easter for 'Dr. Dobbs' babies ever since he had any babies to color 'em for, and I'm sure I don't know what Susanna would say if you was to go visitin' her to the city and never take her a fresh egg for her breakfast!"

"There's the team now," announced Ferrol, glancing out of the window. He picked up a basket in each hand. His sister regarded him with frank admiration. "No one will ever take you for a farmer!" she declared. "When you get store clothes on and a white shirt and collar!"

"Aw, quit foolin'!" advised the great, brawny individual whose height dwarfed her little kitchen. "It takes more than clothes to make a country chap look like a city man, and I don't know that I want to look like one either!" He supplemented stanchly.

"Rody," said Mrs. Spicer rather wistfully, "I wish you'd bring back a wife."

"Me?" His laugh was short—and bitter. "There ain't any city girl that's going to marry me! Though," he added, and his honest face darkened, "it's no trick at all for a city man to marry most any country girl he wants to."

"You ain't got over that affair of Rose Curtis yet, then?" she asked gently.

"No," he replied, "and I'm not likely to."

Then he said goodby, gripped his baskets tighter and was striding down the path from the farmhouse to where his hired man held the team at the gate.

New House of Refuge.

The municipal council of the county of Prince Edward has decided to erect a house of refuge at Peton, at a cost of $10,000. William M. Newland, architect, Kingston, prepared plans which the special committee of the council accepted, and which met with the approval of the inspector of prisons and asylums of Ontario. Mr. Newland was instructed to proceed at once with the preparation of specifications. The land originally selected on Washburn street, has been exchanged for a more suitable site, owned by Chas. Vandusen, on the Demorestville road.

Health Means Success.

It is impossible for a man or woman to be a business success without health. A strong body and an active mind go together. Wade's Iron Tonic Pills give both. Try them. In boxes, 25c, at Wade's Drug Store. Money back if not satisfactory.

Redmersville, Prince Edward, is distantly over the neglect of the medical officers to placard a house, where there was scarlet fever. A great many children visited the house after the patient died. The church, S.S. and school have been closed, owing to Rev. Mr. Pope's advice.

Impurities in the Blood

Tell of Torpid, Sluggish Liver Action and Indicate the Need of

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

There is no getting round the fact that the liver is responsible for the impurity of the blood in the spring. Awaken the liver to action by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you at once remove the cause of the ill and discomforts of this time of year.

Coated tongue. Bitter taste in the mouth. Shortness of breath. Gas on the stomach. Bill, sick headache. Biliousness. Irregularity of the bowels. Weak dizzy feelings. Irritable temper, discouragement and despondency.

These are some of the most common indications that the liver is failing to filter the poison waste matter from the blood.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cleanse the system thoroughly and well, by causing a free action of the bowels.

By their direct and certain action on the liver they purify the blood and bring about a good flow of bile into the intestines—the only means by which constipation can be actually cured.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are an indispensable family medicine of proven worth. One pill a dose, 25c, a box, at all dealers or Edman & Bates & Co., Toronto. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

wrong. I bet! The basket with the pink yarn on the handle was to be left at the doctor's. The time she took coloring 'em too!"

"Tell you what," advised Susanna, suddenly struck with an inspiration, "you take 'em over to Rosie Ward. She don't live but four blocks from here. It's like as not it's all her children 'll get for Easter. The bit of sewing she can get to do don't more'n keep the life in 'em. You remember, she ran away from our town with that city chap."

"I remember," returned Roderick grimly. "Why, doesn't he support her?"

"Land, he's dead! 'Twas in the papers. He'd left her anyhow. He got killed holding a man up. She's s'posed sorrow, I tell you!"

Ferrol replaced the hay. "Tell me just how to find the place," he said. "Was that the plump, rosy, pretty girl he had loved—this worn, pale woman who opened the door of her two rooms to him? His heart went out to her in a great wave of pity, of tenderness. He set the basket on the table.

"Rose?" he said. "My poor girl!"

He took the heavy child gently from her trembling arms. She flushed scarlet as he leaned forward and kissed her on the forehead. The little girl clinging to her skirts looked up at him timidly.

"Roderick!" Rose said and broke down sobbing. "That you should see us—like this!"

He sat down, set the baby on his knee and drew the little girl to his side. "Rose," he vowed huskily, "it's God's own mercy that lets me! I made a mistake about them eggs, and Cousin Susanna thought your children could play with 'em. She ain't got but Tom, you know." He looked around the wretched place. "Rose, this ain't a patch on the farm for comfort. Joan, she's crazy to go off and live with her daughter. I'll be in the city till Thursday. Can't you and the children be ready by then to go back with me?"

"Roderick," she faltered, "I'm not the girl you—you used to love!"

"You're the only one I ever did love," he declared stoutly, "or that I ever will!"

Her eyes shone. "Oh," she sighed softly, "it will be like—like heaven!"

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by all druggists.
