TEUR THIEF.

Carried Off. Shovel lieved of Each-Stolen Socks at Five Cents Pair. A peculiar case of daylight theft came to the attention of the police, yesterday, the operation of the thief being along distinctly novel but amateur lines. A middle-aged man, giving he name of James Wallace and his ddress as Gananoque, was taken into sustody by the police,

Wallace is supposed to have commenced operations on Princess street, where he walked into Mitchell's hardware store and picking up a scoop shovel walked out without the owner's permission. He was followed to the street, and gave back the airlen article when requested to do so, He next proceeded to Wilmot's grocery on King street, and after taking a look around, threw a sack of flour over his shoulder, and proceeded to get out. Of this he was also relieved, but a few moment's later was seen by King street merchants to go out King street, west of Princess, with a bundle of socks under his arm.

After proceeding several blocks, he started to distribute his wares to the nhabitants at the moderate price of 5c. a pair. The quality of his merchandise was good and he was doing a citing situations, it proved to rushing business, until he approached of the real hits of the season in able to answer. In passing sentence the magistrate said he hoped it would prove a warning to other men of Wallace's calibre to give Kingston a wide berth.

Salvation Army Self-Denial

The well-known self-denial week the Salvation Army will be observed by that body from May 6th to 13th onusual activity has taken possessio of the army's energetic members in anticipation of this great event. The army's beneficent operations maintained purely by the free-will ofheathen abroad and the down-fallen at home are chiefly met through the agency of self-denial. The army doing splendid work in its industrie homes, rescue and maternity homes men's and women's shelters, lished in different centres in this cour try, while the world over the army has about 500 similar refuges for the fallen and destitute. The enthusiasp with which the Salvationists themis remarkable and it would probabl be hard to find a wearer of the form who has not in addition pecuniary sacrifices, denied himse some luxury or partial necessity food and clothing by way of cir line. The self-denial fund is consid ably augmented by assistance outside friends, far and near, this worthy effort should not be
