NOTES ON PLAYS, PLAYERS AND PLAY HOUSES.

Novel Presentation in England—Nance O'Neill's Appearance in New York—H. B. Irving in
"Hamlet."

Wilton Lackaye closed his season in the "Fitt," on April 22nd, and 1,100 consecutive performances.

Fourteen companies gave up the struggle last week. The gentle spring is not a cheerful proposition on the road.

Victorian Sardon now seventy-four years of age, is at work on a new play for Sarah Bernhardt, to follow "Sainte Therese."

E. S. Willard, who sails for England on May 24th, will return again in the autumn, and open his American tour at Montreal, on October 2nd.

Clyde Fitch's latest play, "The Woman in the Case," is now being adapted for presentation on the German stage, where it will be presented in German.

Miss Margaret Wycherly last week produced "The Countess" at the Madison Square Theatre, New York.
The play, by W. B. Yeates, the Irish poet, is new in this country.

Forbes Robertson, the eminent English tragedian, closed a very successful tour last Saturday night at Easton, Pa. He will return next season for an extended engagement.

Clyde Fitch is completing a revision of his old play, "His Grace de Gram-mont," for Otis Skinner's use next season, and an entirely new scenic outfit is in course of preparation.

Two important dramatic productions promised for next season are J.
I. C. Clarke's version of Gen. Lew Wallace's "A Prince of India" and Marion Crawford's new play "By the Waters of Babylon."

Miss Vera Michelena, who was well liked in the "Princess Orléans," has started on the vaudeville circuit. Miss Michelena is the daughter of the once great tenor who accompanied Patti in several concert tours.

Charles Hawtry, at the Criterion Theatre, New York, on the afternoon of May 1st, acted a new play, "The Splendid Life," written by his brother, George F. Hawtry. The performance was for the benefit of the actors' fund.

Miss Jessie Millward, after trying for five years to get a permanent footing on the American stage as a star, has decided to return to England. She has purchased the English rights to "The School for Husbands," and next August will present it to her followers in London.

Beebohm Tree's greatest financial successes have been won with Shakespeare plays, "The Seats of the Mighty," "Ragged Robin," "Carnac Sahib," and "The Gordian Knot," which were supposed to be concessions to the public taste, were the only pieces on which he lost money.

In the benefit for the actors' fund which was given in Chicago, Miss Viola Allen appeared in a scene from "A Winter's Tale," Miss Ethel Barrymore in her one-act play "Carrots," Mrs.
Fiske in an address, and Miss Lillian Russell in songs from "Lady Teazle."

Miss Nance O'Neill is to appear in New York in "Macbeth" and the English version of Giacometti's "Elizabeth, Queen of England." Ristori played the virgin queen in New York many years ago, and several eminent English actors have been seen in the part, but the play will be a novelty to all the younger theatregoers.

According to the London papers, H.
B. Irving gave "Hamlet" a thoroughly artistic performance at the Adelphi, but he gave the Melancholy Dane rather too strong a personality for so weak a personage. He emphasized the youthful side of Hamlet's character.
Miss Lily Bravton played the Ophelia and was a little needlessly cruel in her interpretation.

A novel presentation in London recently was that of "The Trojan Woman of Euripides," exquisitely done in English by Professor Filbert Murray.
The acting was thoroughly worthy of the tragic theme. The London critics speak in the highest terms of the Andromache of Miss Edith Wynne-Mat-hison. Kingston playgoers will remember the most favourable impression she made here last summer.

In England the vaudeville theatre are, as here, drawing many stars from the legitimate. At the New Coliseum for instance, Madame Esty sings the mad scene from Lucia di Lammer-moor. Rutland Barrington and Walter Passmore, famous comic opera stars, do short turns now. Mabel Love, Queenie Leighton, and Topsy Linden have also been over to the variety ranks. The king visited the Coliseum recently, stayed to the end, and professed himself delighted.

Sarah Bernhardt and Catulle Mendes have become friends again and this fact has caused a sensation in theoretical circles in Paris. The actress and the author quarrelled several years ago over his play, "Sainte Therese," which was never produced. Now Madame Bernhardt has agreed to produce it, a condition of the new contract being a forfeiture of $3,000 if she again fails. Mr. Mendes has promised to use the money—should he get it—to aid struggling writers.

using ordinary liniments try Smith's self, and yet costs less than the common kinds. Cures rheumatism, neuralgia and all external injuries.

A quiet wedding took place in Gananogue on Monday, when Miss Mar-die, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker, was united in marriage to Carl Lindquist, foreman of the Art Metal Construction company of Jamestown, N.Y. Bert James Kingston, was groomsmen, and Miss Flossie James performed the duties of bridesmaid.

Norman Matthew Sheets, Ganan-ogue, died at the residence of his son, Oscar Sheets, on Sunday. The deceased was in his seventy-sixth year.
There are in existence more than 700 biographies of Columbus written in various languages.

BODY OF PAUL JONES

May be Buried in New York.

Special to the Whig.
New York, May 6.—The suggestion that the body of Paul Jones shall rest here in New York recalls the fact that in St. Patrick's graveyard, in Mott street, in a plain white slab inscribed: "A la memoire de Pierre de Landais, ancien contre-Amiral au service des Etats-Unis, qui disparut Juin, 1818, age eighty-seven ans."

It covers the remains of poor old De Landais, captain of the Alliance, the French sailor, who was disgraced by congress and deprived of his command because he did not fight as well as his associate, Paul Jones, in the famous "battle" between the Scarpis and the Bon Homme Richard. For forty years the old Frenchman walked the streets of this city in proud and solitary poverty, vainly trying to have his case re-opened. Forgotten by his generation, as his epitaph says, he "disappeared."

If a man's wife is a good baker, nothing but the best flour is good enough for her. There can be no greater extravagance than the use of inferior flour.

Winchester Springs, Feb. 27th, 05.

"I read about Royal Household Flour which is purified by electricity. I also read about the woman paying freight 25 miles before she would be without it. Royal Household was not sold in our town, I was asking about it and my grocer told me to wait a day or two and he would get some, and I am glad I did so. My wife is a good baker and made good bread out of other flours, but what she has now made out of Royal Household is so far ahead that I would be willing to pay freight fifty miles instead of twenty-five, rather than go without it. There is no flour 'just as good' as Royal Household."

(Signed) JOHN HENDERSON.

Now, is there a single woman in the whole country who, after reading what Mr. Henderson says, will not at once send for the Royal Household recipes and give Royal Household Flour a trial. Mention this paper and address

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says George J. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by all druggists.

Auburn Hair.

When red hair makes its appearance on a human head all lukewarmness is at an end. It is either loved or loathed. Its admirers, with artists in the van, are almost hysterically enthusiastic. They call it golden, though the gold that comes out of the earth is not often exactly that shade. A red-haired woman is sure of a success in some quarter, however plain her face or insignificant her figure. The detractors of red hair say it is a sign of bad temper, or immorality, or both, and therefore to be scrupulously avoided.

The Youker property and skating rink, Belleville, have been secured as paid will be $9,000.
